BOGEYMAN

OF

No. 1

Look what we have achieved together! We as bogeyman beater club, the unknown worldwide children's friends on the internet! If everyone left a review like this about the bogeyman beater club, we would have much more brand awareness than now, because marketing is something that unfortunately requires money! And now our club has everything but money...

Our club has a golden heart filled with the smiles of hundreds of children, but unfortunately no money to rise above our competition. Now of course I am not asking you for your hard-earned pocket money, but to leave a review on, for example, Instagram and tag than @opper.boeman or leave a review like eight peoples before you trustpilot.com.

And together we will make the bogeyman beater club something gigantic and a household name in the children's book world!

This was my foreword, and now let's start with a new bogeyman beater club booklet:

The eye of doom!

Chapter 1

No. 5

When even the Supreme boogeyman fears the ruthless monsters in the name of the Boogity-boogity monsters that take all the zest for life from Angstland Feartopia blah blah blah blah.....

We've talked about this several times before about those devilish dinosaurs of utter destruction!

But what if the greatest evil everyone's world has ever known is now coming to Earth? What do you do then? Because not all bootastic boopeople are equally sweet or evil, but these dinosaurs are the ultimate embodiment of evil...

They swallow up all the beauty the earth has ever known and leave nothing but black mess and ash in their path! But it's not that far yet:

Not yet!!

I heard you laughing when I talked about the Boogity-boogity monsters the very first time, you all thought it was a joke, right?

No. 6

Well they really exist and only your nightmares can stop them from coming to Earth, that's why we give you nightmares, because only a child's nightmares can protect Earth from this evil...

But since you are winning more and more fights from us the boogypeople, the nightmares are no longer nightmares, but it has become a game for you to defeat the boogeyman....

And that was never the intention, because those nightmares are supposed to protect you, especially against this all-destroying evil!

But if none of you have nightmares anymore and no one is afraid of the boogeyman anymore, how do we close the Boogity-boogity monsters outside when that happens?

Because we may look like a chick with purple feathers and a golden beak, but we are ruthless monsters GRRRRRR WAF KEF....

No, without fooling around, we are proud of each and every one of you!

And remember that, but without your fear we cannot protect the earth!

No. 7

SO FEAR US!
FEAR US!
FEAR US MWUHAAAAAAAAA!

Chapter 2

No. 9

Fear us for your own good, for only if you fear us can we protect the world from the greatest evil of all...

So it is important to give nightmares to all of you so that you can all get up safely and live in a beautiful peaceful world!

Only that world is as peaceful as the eye of doom of Angstland Feartopia himself looks at all of us? And I mean everyone is watching! The eye is the one that Angstland Feartopia judged and condemned, because the eye sees everything and everyone!

And perhaps the same as karma, whoever does bad in the eye of the eye will meet with misfortune, but whoever does good in the eye of the eye will meet with good!

But what if the eye condemns the good to misfortune and the bad to happiness?

What if the eye is blind to righteousness and when the eye sees what it wants to see?

No. 10

Precisely that, boys and girls, is the eye of doom and let this booklet be about this, because it is not just that the eye can no longer do its apparent things.... There must be one or more reasons why the eye can no longer see, but has become blind!

Let the boogeyman beater club now want to show the eye light again.. Remove the sunglasses in the dark, sort of speak. But where do you start? Because the eye hangs meters high in the air and the only way to get to it is via the back of a Boogity-boogity monster and via the top of a dormant volcano?

First of all, who would be crazy enough to climb on the back of such a scary monster and secondly, this volcano can wipe out the entire Angstland Feartopia in one single blow....

And the legend of this volcano is legendary, because it is the eye and the eye alone that makes this volcano sleep! Because as long as the eye is open the volcano sleeps, but as soon as the eye closes or blinks once, all hell literally breaks loose!

No. 11

Then there will be no more Feartopia and perhaps no more Earth, or any planet for that matter! Because Feartopia is directly connected to all planets in the universe!

So when Feartopia falls, the entire universe falls, but the eye has gone blind and lost its sight, condemning the good ones to misfortune and causing a lot of problems because the judgment is no longer fair!

There is no justice anymore, this is just random and pointing fingers in the air at you are good and you are bad!

And if we boogeymen have to be honest, things haven't been fair for a while now... And we look at it, and we look at it and keep looking at it until even we boogeyfolk go blind, and that shouldn't happen!

So the eye needs to be reset, and I think we've found the right guy for that.

No. 12

Because Tomas is many things, but not afraid and adventure is his middle name! And as he awakens, the eye of doom is completely disturbed for reasons unknown!

And Tomas is soon seen as a threat to Angstland Feartopia and all its inhabitants, so the biggest boogeyman is sent to Earth to teach the evil Tomas a lesson!

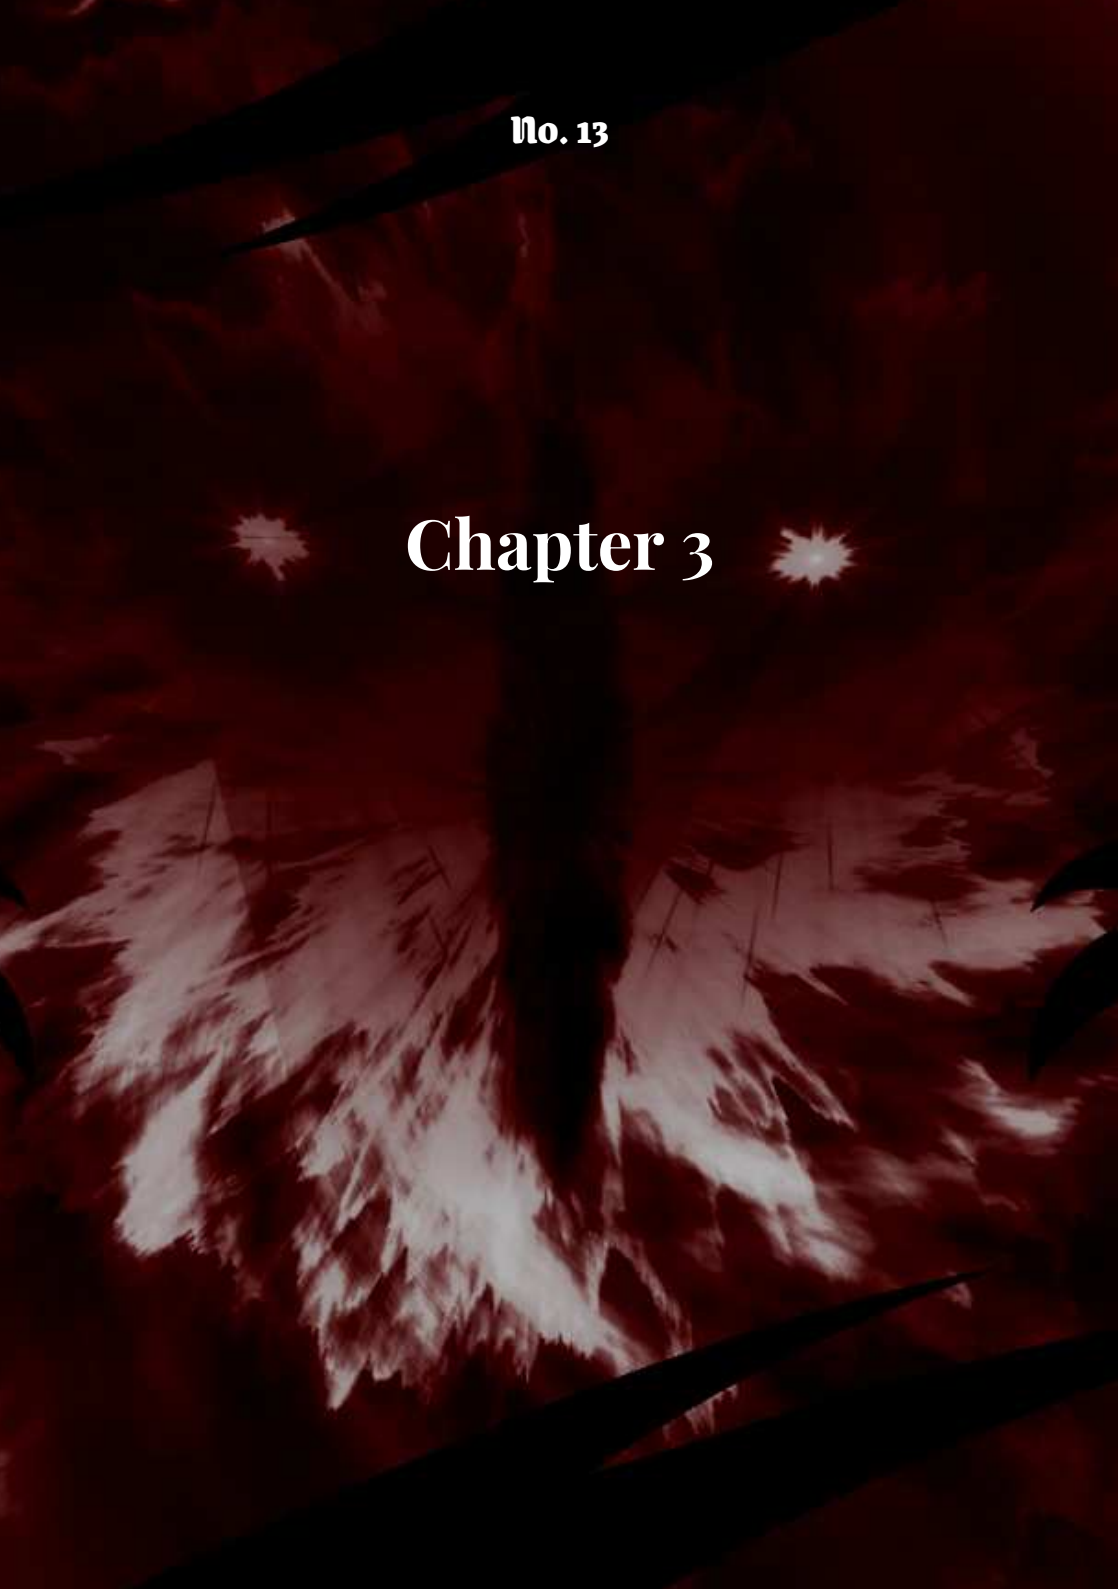

But this Tomas is not easily scared, but when even Diabolico is woken up to teach Tomas a lesson, that is reason to get scared!

Because Diabolico is the most evil boogeyman on our planet! And when he is sent to teach the children a lesson, wet your chest and prepare for the worst!

Because Tomas may be fearless on earth, but what about the rest of the universe!?

Chapter 3

What about the planet UB/09, for example? Where Ouch Claw lives... I hear you thinking who is Ouch Claw!?

Ouch Claw is a victim of an accident due to his own stupid fault or inattention, and now his life is scarred, on his hand! His hand was so badly damaged that even the best zombie stitchers in Angstland couldn't stitch it up, even the best doctors in Feartopia couldn't save his hand...

And now that he is forever and ever reminded of a zombie hand that he can even separate from his body and that has a train of thought of its own, he is the king of the planet UB\09!

And the combination between Diabolico and Ouch Claw is one you won't soon forget! But Tomas must prove himself, and not only against himself, Diabolico and Ouch Claw, but also against the all-seeing eye of Angstland Feartopia itself and the Boogity-boogity monsters!

No. 15

And that is something that is not for everyone....
Especially when the claw picks him up to the planet UB/09, and he sees the Boogity-boogity monsters walking everywhere on the wasteland they call a planet here...

All the beauty is gone and the zest for life is sucked out of the creatures that walk around here! They look like yellow bear people, and they walk with their souls under their arms...

That means they walk around aimlessly, while the Boogity-boogity monsters don't even sniff them yet! Those gigantic dinosaurs that are the culprit of this.

Tomas is very impressed by these dinosaurs, with their gigantic teeth and their huge forked tongues! But he is more impressed by the laugh that seems to fall from the sky.

And yes, a laugh falls from the sky, and it sounds like HAHAAHAHAHAHA AAAAA splet....

The laugh falls to the ground right in front of his nose, and there is a juicy puddle of laughing juice that soon grows horns and red eyes. While it starts to look more and more like a little red demon!

No. 16

Tomas laughs and says: now get the weak fall laugh and walks away, but Diabolico doesn't let himself be put aside so quickly and grabs him with two huge claws and pulls him backwards! Tomas can only laugh as the nails start to grow and a dark voice sounds:

You literally take the blood away from under my nails, Tomas!

The atmosphere quickly changes when a second enemy appears on the scene, an ugly man with a zombie hand that he unleashes on the Boogity-boogitymonsters and has their tail cut off with a sword and a popping sound: pop, pop, pop, pop...

Then the hand returns to the ugly little bald man, the demon leaves Tomas cold while he doesn't seem to like it, but he finds the man with the zombie hand much scarier!

And while the demon does everything he can to be scary...

No. 17

Tomas cannot be impressed! Then the demon seems to get angry, and it starts to thunder on planet UB/09, the lightning bolts all land right next to Tomas as he slowly but surely drips away. This thunderstorm gives the Boogity-boogity monsters their desire to destroy even more, and to send the planet's inhabitants of this wasteland back home.

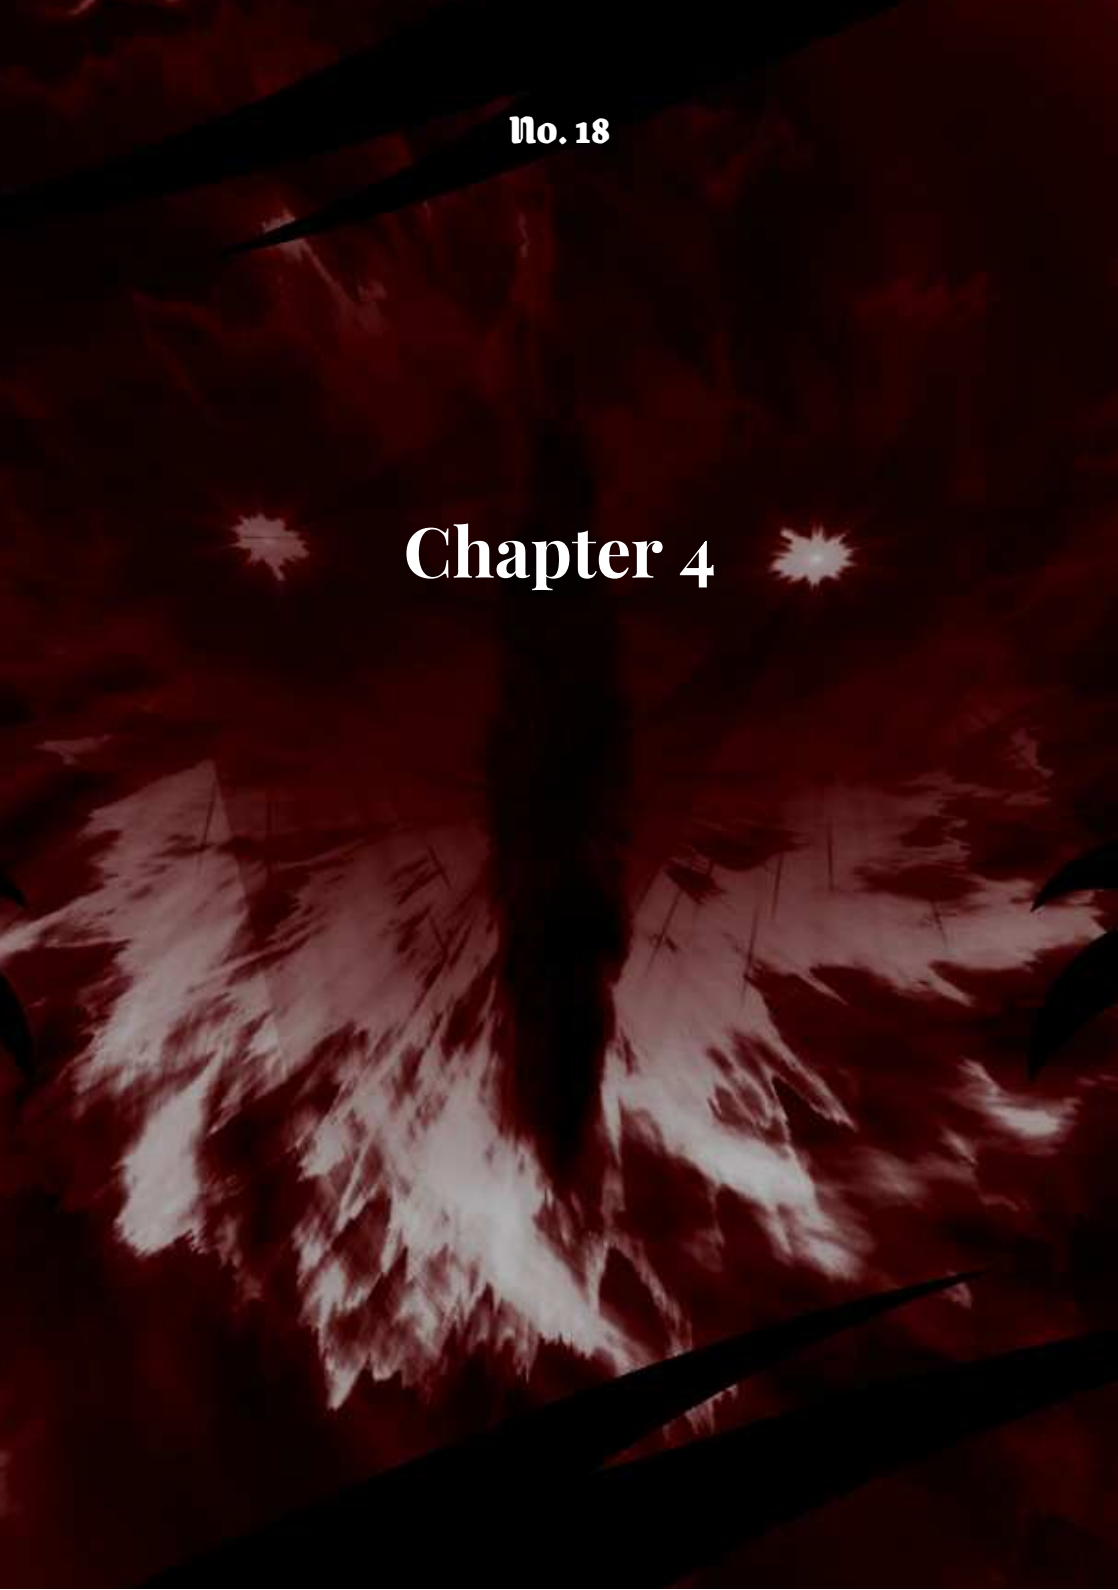

Diabolico watches with a smile as Tomas has to dodge the lightning bolts, and Ouch Claw fights the monsters again!

This time there are too many and Diabolico snaps his fingers and all the Boogity-boogity monsters evaporate in the heavy rain!

Do I have your attention now, boy!?

№. 18

Chapter 4

No. 19

Tomas looks in disbelief at what just happened while the ugly bald man stands next to Diabolico and introduces himself as Giullo, but Diabolico calls him Ouch Claw!

And Ouch Claw is the only one who can help save Angstland-Fearthopia, and then it is important that Tomas becomes afraid of Diabolico, but Tomas cannot be impressed!

Why can't you be impressed, Tomas? Everyone is afraid of me, everyone fears me!

But Tomas just laughs and says:
I'm not afraid of imaginary creatures!

IMAGINARY!? DO YOU THINK WE ARE IMAGINARY, SPOILED
AAAAARGH!!

The sky turns pitch and jet black as Diabolico loses his patience, a downpour comes down, and lightning bolts shoot through the entire planet as Diabolico grows bigger and bigger and bigger and bigger with the fear of the entire planet!

No. 20

Trees and houses are hit by lightning bolts, and Diabolico enjoys all the fear that reigns over the planet, until Ouch Claw forces him to face the facts: Angstland-Feartopia!

In one go, Diabolico becomes minuscule and seems to sink through the ground.

Tomas, the instigator of the devastating thunderstorm, walks to Ouch Claw and says: You can talk to me, can I help with anything? Ouch Claw lets go of his zombie hand, and he forms a kind of screen in the sky where the all-seeing eye condemns all boogeypeeps to a life on another planet!

'Look, this is what's going on, our all-seeing eye that normally gives an honest judgment about us all, has been corrupted by something! Our job is to make the eye fair again, and we need you for that!'

The zombie hand closes the screen and attaches itself to Giulio again, you can see that it hurts him. Tomas nods and says, that's fine, I'll help you...

But Diabolico is not pleased with Tomas' ability to act as if nothing is wrong!

No. 21

There is nothing wrong Tomas and we are not imaginary Tomas! Guillo's hand and the eye are also real, I am real, my power is real, and you make me doubt my terrifying powers! I am the worst bogeyman of Angstland-Feartopia! Do you know what I mean?

I'M THE SCARIEST AND YOU'RE NOT AFRAID!

Tomas just laughs: Sorry, but I've learned never to be afraid of a bully, and you're nothing more than an alien bully!

Diabolico literally drops to the ground and snaps his fingers. With a simple snap of his fingers, the boys find themselves in Angstland-Feartopia where there is nothing left except the Boogity-boogity monsters and where the eye sees everything!

The planet is in bad shape and the boogeyman beater club itself is keeping its doors closed to visitors, all the boogeyman are gone! Unfairly sentenced to life on another planet by the eye they once worshipped!

No. 22

It has become a depressed planet and even the Boogey-King and Boogey-Queen have been banished to another existence, without their royal status! Everything and everyone except the Boogity-boogity monsters are gone, unfairly judged and lost, simply banished!

The once beautiful planet belongs to the greatest evil ever known, and why?

Because the boogeymen gave you the chance to win! Because you were no longer afraid, just like Tomas!

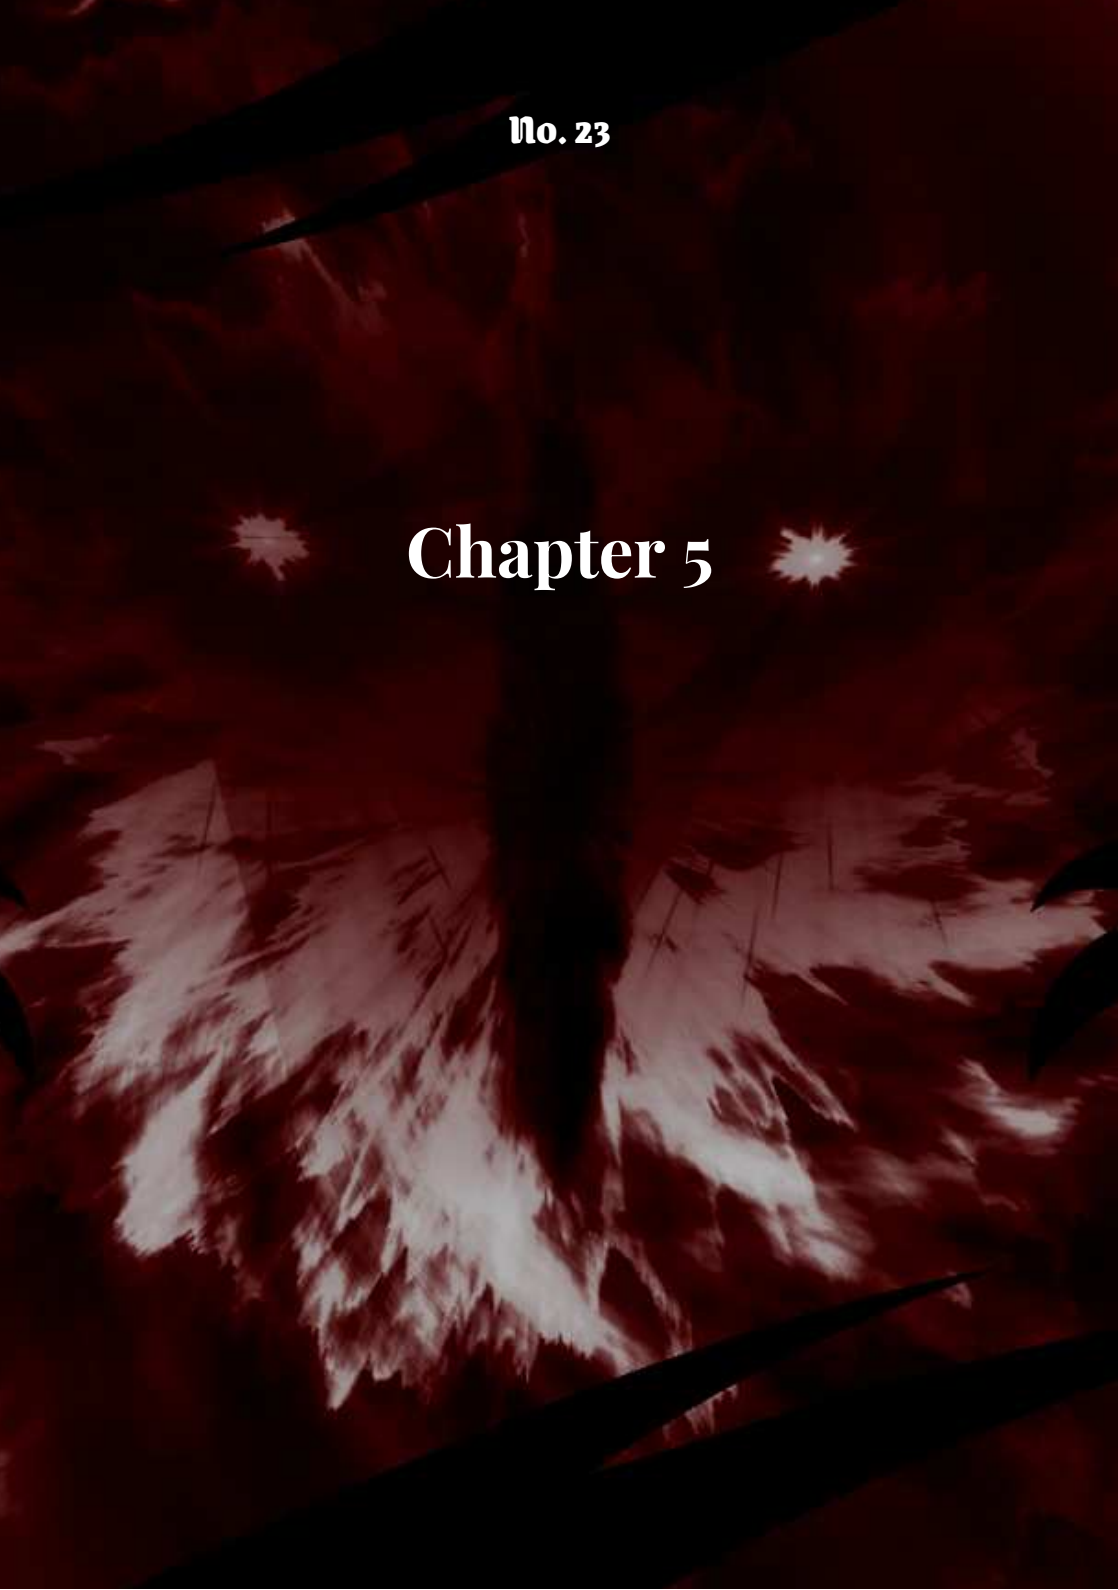

Because the boogeyman beater club where these books come from has failed in plain sight to bring fear!

The fear that Angstland-Feartopia needed to stay beautiful, and instead of the boogeyman winning, each and every one of you won!

Just as the supreme boogeyman wanted, because no child on any planet deserves to grow up afraid!

Chapter 5

Anyway, let's move on, so they have ended up on Angstland-Fearthopia where all the ogres have been banished...

How do they save the entire planet when the eye could strike at any moment? Because Ouch Claw can easily separate his zombie hand from his arm, climb onto a Boogity-boogity monster and brave the volcano, to find out what's wrong with the eye!

But how do you do that when the eye sees everything, absolutely everything, and one blink and the volcano erupts, and that could mean the end of the entire universe!

Even if there are ideas, it must also be possible to work them out! And the eye can no longer be trusted! The eye will have already seen them and is waiting for 1 simple mistake to punish them forever...

So Diabolico doesn't understand that Tomas is on board, we need someone who is afraid, not fearless!

We require fear to save Fearland, and Tomas is simply not afraid of anything!

But maybe this can actually work out for the best, because if he's not afraid of us, he's not afraid of the monsters either, right?

No. 25

Tomas shrugs and at that moment the zombie hand jumps onto his shoulder and wishes Giullo their luck!

The fate of Fearland and the Earth is in their hands, what? Of the whole universe!

Tomas walks fearlessly through an army of monsters and the zombie hand pops the tail of the monsters that come too close one by 1...

Pop,pop,popppperdepopperpopperdepopopoppele popelepoppelepop...

They can already see the volcano in the distance, the zombie hand stops Tomas by pushing against his chest. Tomas now has to throw it at a

Boogity-boogity monster and throw it correctly in one go while the zombie hand conjures up reins...

Tomas throws and throws well in one go, after which Ouch Claw's zombie hand wraps the reins around the monster's mouth and on its back, and then takes complete control!

Together with the monster they climb up the volcano and Ouch Claw's zombie hand immediately sees what is wrong with the eye!

There is a boogiechaun poking and irritating the eye, so the eye literally has to do its utmost not to blink!

The boogiechaun seems to enjoy this teasing, but Ouch Claw's zombie hand jumps off the monster and takes the skewer from the boogiechaun after which he pricks him dozens of times, the boogiechaun gets angry and bigger and bigger and bigger and bigger....

And then the eye gets tears in its fiery irritated flames, and black shadows come out of the volcano trying to soften the eye.

But then the eye blinks and the volcano starts to rumble, while the boogeychaun is only now aware of his evil and Diabolico Giullo and Tomas are all standing on an erupting volcano...

The eye cries, and every time a tear falls into the volcano, the volcano becomes calmer and calmer, calmer and calmer...

Giullo's zombie hand doesn't think twice and picks up the skewer again, while the boogeychaun flees in fear. And pricks the eye until the volcano is so full of tears that the lava is completely hardened and erupting is no longer possible...

The eye looks full of gratitude and all the boogeypeople return, the boogeyman beater club opens its doors again and the royal house is open again..

The eye apologizes by bowing, but no apology is necessary, everyone in Fearland bows to the eye and even the monsters join in.

No. 27

Then Angstland turns back into the paradise it once was and the eye takes away the all-destroying suction power of the Boogity-boogity monsters, so Angstland will never change again...

The boogeyman beater club moves itself under the eye and the children who were able to defeat the boogeyman will never have to fear again, in their young lives!

Because from now on, whoever defeats the friendly boogeyman will defeat them for life! No more fear of nightmares to save a crooked planet and no more distinction between right and wrong, everyone is equal from now on...

The boogeyman beater club thanks the eye and even Diabolico is welcome again, in the club after years of absence!

Everyone is equal from now on as Tomas wakes up from a deep sleep and gets ready to go to school, and when he thinks back to his dream and Giullo's Ouch Claw, he knows deep down that this dream was a little too realistic to call a dream...

No. 28

The moral

No. 29

The moral, do you know this moral? Are there perhaps multiple morals? Yes, just think for a moment.....

We thought about it for a long time, we start with Diabolico, the worst and scariest bogeyman, whatever he did, he didn't scare Tomas, no matter how angry he got he didn't scare Tomas!

Do you remember why that was? Tomas has learned to..... Precisely not to be afraid of a bully, and Diabolico was nothing more to him than an alien bully!

And I believe Diabolico could have fallen through the ground when he heard those words, believe me he didn't like that!

Then you have Giullo's Ouch Claw, which initially was a villain, but as time passed in the book, the zombie hand became the hero of this story!

Why was that? Because nothing more happened to Giullo than a stupid accident through his own fault, and if you've been paying attention, Giullo is outside the bogeyman beater club, he's not a bogeyman at all!

No. 30

Then you have that terrible boogeychaun, god, what a bully he was, I have never experienced a bully like that in my 3100 years of existence! What a terrible man, but when this bully realized what he had done and could have wiped out the entire universe, he realized his mistake and the eye left it at that!

Do you also know why the eye did that? This is also a lesson for older or mature people, but those who are aware of their mistakes can learn from them and never make the same mistakes again!

Because anyone who is aware will always carry guilt with them and will therefore never do it again... Because the guilt of that boogeychaun, that terrible man, will always haunt him!

And as the unfeared Tomas, who was chosen by me, the supreme boogeyman, and why would I have chosen him in particular? This boy is so fearless that he just walked through an army of Boogity-boogity monsters like he did that every day!

I chose him for this very reason, because without him, we would have been much worse off!

No. 31

And it is precisely his ambition to do good, while there is nothing but evil around him and to keep his cool, that deserves not only my respect but the gratitude of the whole world!

And finally we have the Boogity-boogitymonsters themselves, who have lost their suction power and as a result Angstland-Feartopia may remain a paradise forever...

We just needed your nightmares at first, but these monsters were so evil that there was not a spark of good or love in them!

And the eye thought that the boogeyman beater club was right and that things had to change! And that is why you can just keep beating us boogeyman, and we can no longer feed our planet with your nightmares, but we can make our planet more beautiful with your dreams!

I hope that you have once again learned from a new boogeyman beater club booklet and for now I wish you a very loving and gentle night without nightmares, but filled with the most beautiful dreams!

No. 32

Sleep tight and see you next time!
Kind regards, the entire boogeyman beater club!
