To start again I would like to ask you all to spread the word of the boogeyman beater club!
Because every child is important and every child matters and you may think that the supreme boogeyman is tough and fearless, but even the supreme boogeyman is afraid of something every day!

And even the supreme boogeyman is really just an insecure boogeyman!

So I really need your support with that! To show me that I can still do it...

Because sometimes I don't know anymore, to be honest! Do I still captivate you?

Do I still have your attention?

And even though the books are being downloaded like hot cakes, I'm actually just a child like you and every child needs appreciation every now and then... And I'm very honest about that, because I hear so little from you readers, while my intention was to put you all in a spotlight for who you are and can become....

So that's why I want to ask you for a review on trustpilot.com or just a stupid rating on the boogeyman beater club itself, that's all I need, but sometimes I just want to know if I'm doing it right or not! Can I still fascinate you?

Do you know what I mean?

...Foreword...

Well this is an interesting book! It is educational, it is exciting so far of course...

He is different and daring...

It is special and something completely new in the children's book market (at least I think so)

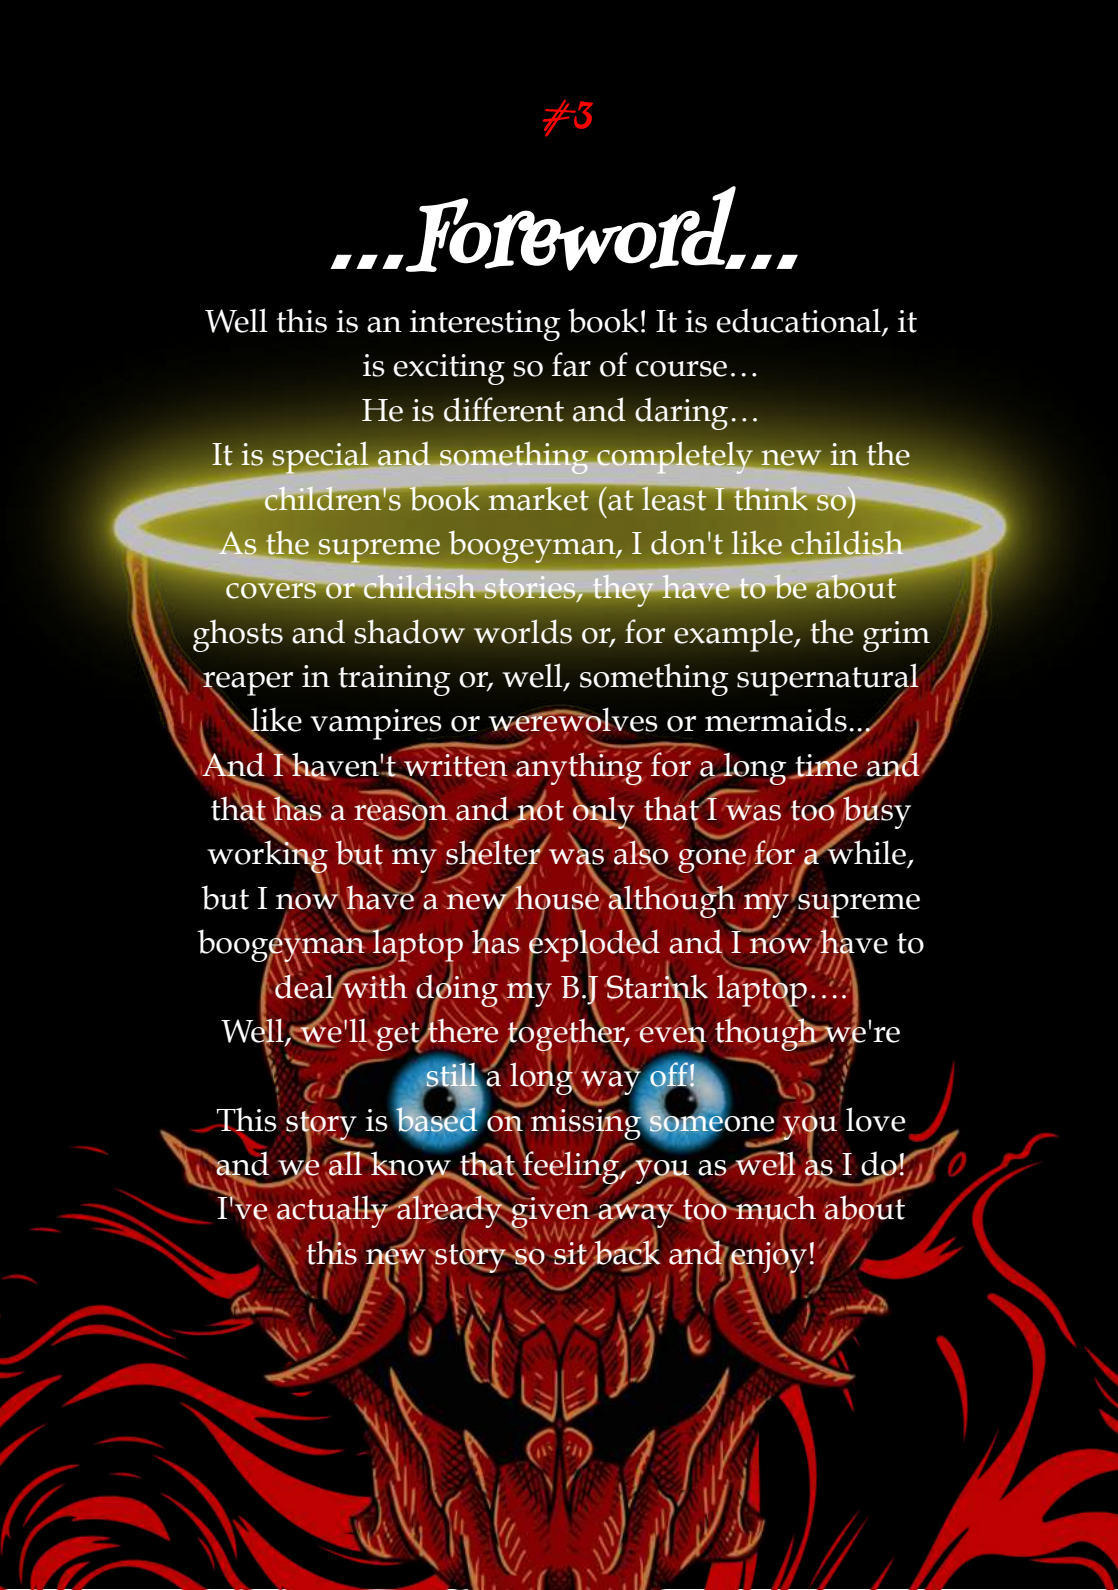

As the supreme boogeyman, I don't like childish covers or childish stories, they have to be about ghosts and shadow worlds or, for example, the grim reaper in training or, well, something supernatural like vampires or werewolves or mermaids...

And I haven't written anything for a long time and that has a reason and not only that I was too busy working but my shelter was also gone for a while, but I now have a new house although my supreme boogeyman laptop has exploded and I now have to deal with doing my B.J Starink laptop....

Well, we'll get there together, even though we're still a long way off!

This story is based on missing someone you love and we all know that feeling, you as well as I do!

I've actually already given away too much about this new story so sit back and enjoy!

A red devil mask with horns and a glowing halo. The mask is intricately detailed with a textured, almost woodcut-like appearance. It features two large, glowing blue eyes and a wide, toothy grin. The horns are curved upwards and outwards, and a bright, glowing yellow and white halo surrounds the top of the mask. The background is black, with red, flame-like patterns at the bottom.

#6

A detailed illustration of a red, horned demon head. The head is rendered in a stylized, woodcut-like manner with intricate line work. It has two large, curved horns at the top. The eyes are large, glowing blue circles with black pupils. The mouth is open, showing sharp teeth. Above the head is a glowing yellow ring. The background is black with red, flame-like patterns at the bottom.

The first chapter!

Are you starting to get it?

#7

You wouldn't say it, but Angel Eye has been the victim of a witch! A witch who breaks hearts with the greatest of ease... A witch who left nothing of Angel Eye's heart and left her to her fate!

You wouldn't know it when you meet Angel Eye, but Angel Eye once had a heart of gold before that evil witch came along and broke her heart into thousands of pieces!

You wouldn't think it if you met Angel Eye, but Angel Eye is anything but an evil soul! Her soul remains intact, but the witch has cast her spell to remain in the shadow world forever and ever until true love melts her heart for the second time!

You wouldn't say it if you meet Angel Eye, but like all of us, Angel Eye is sooner or later looking for love... And you might say that you don't like boys or girls and that you think they're dirty, but so are you. sooner or later the heart is conquered by love!

Love is one thing in life that no one can escape, because everyone falls in love sooner or later! But watch out for the witch, who will also break your heart when she sees her chance!

From her crystal ball she sees true love thousands of kilometers away, and with her cooking pot and stirring spoon she sends the shadows towards every person to see how strong love really is.

That sounds exciting, well it is!

Because if the love is not strong enough, she will cast a spell, just like over Angel Eye, and you will turn into a kind of demon-like being and you will wander off to the shadow world until you have found your true love again...

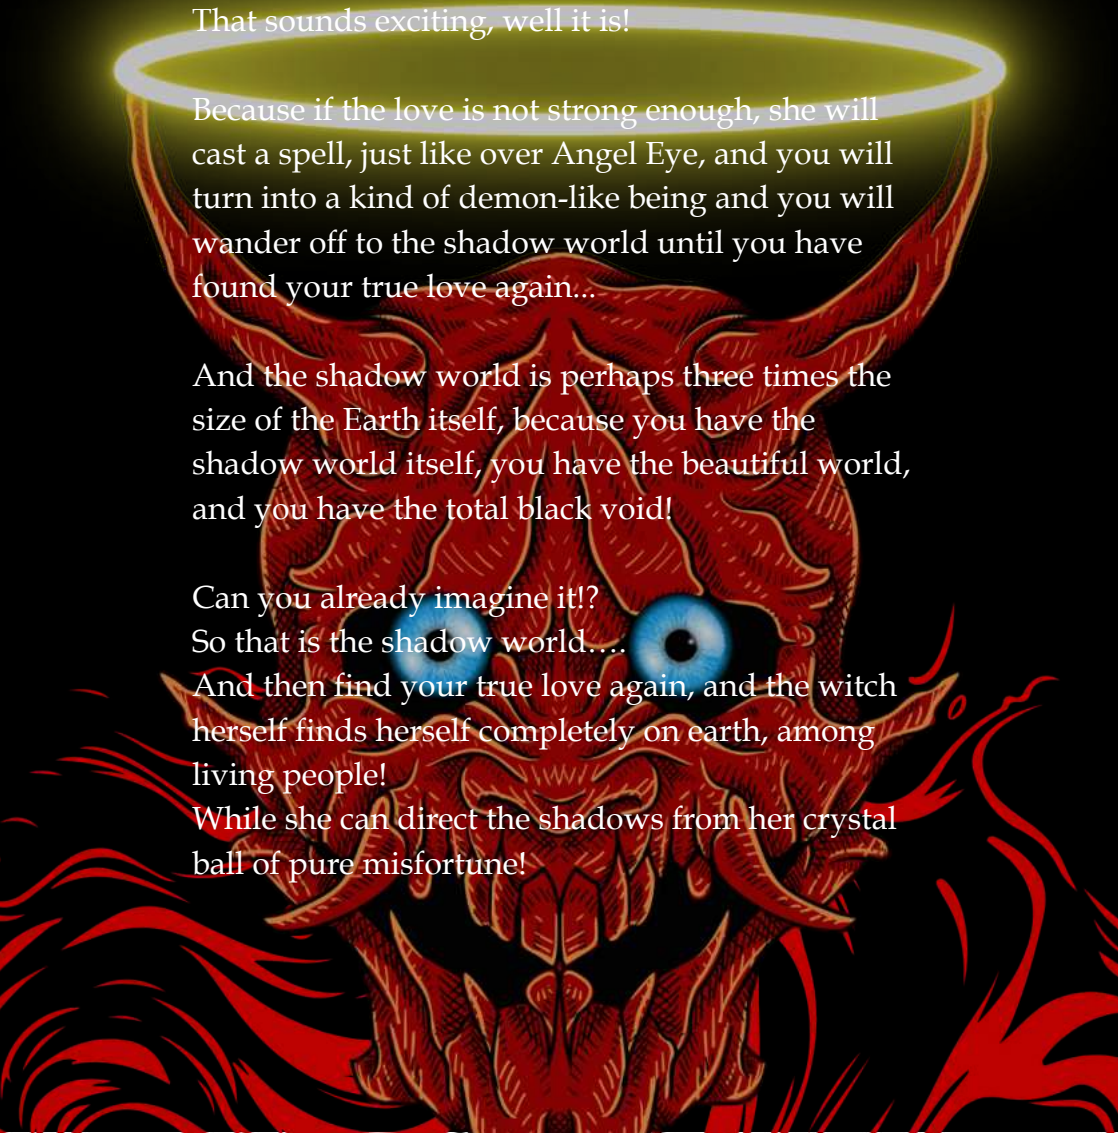

And the shadow world is perhaps three times the size of the Earth itself, because you have the shadow world itself, you have the beautiful world, and you have the total black void!

Can you already imagine it!?

So that is the shadow world....

And then find your true love again, and the witch herself finds herself completely on earth, among living people!

While she can direct the shadows from her crystal ball of pure misfortune!

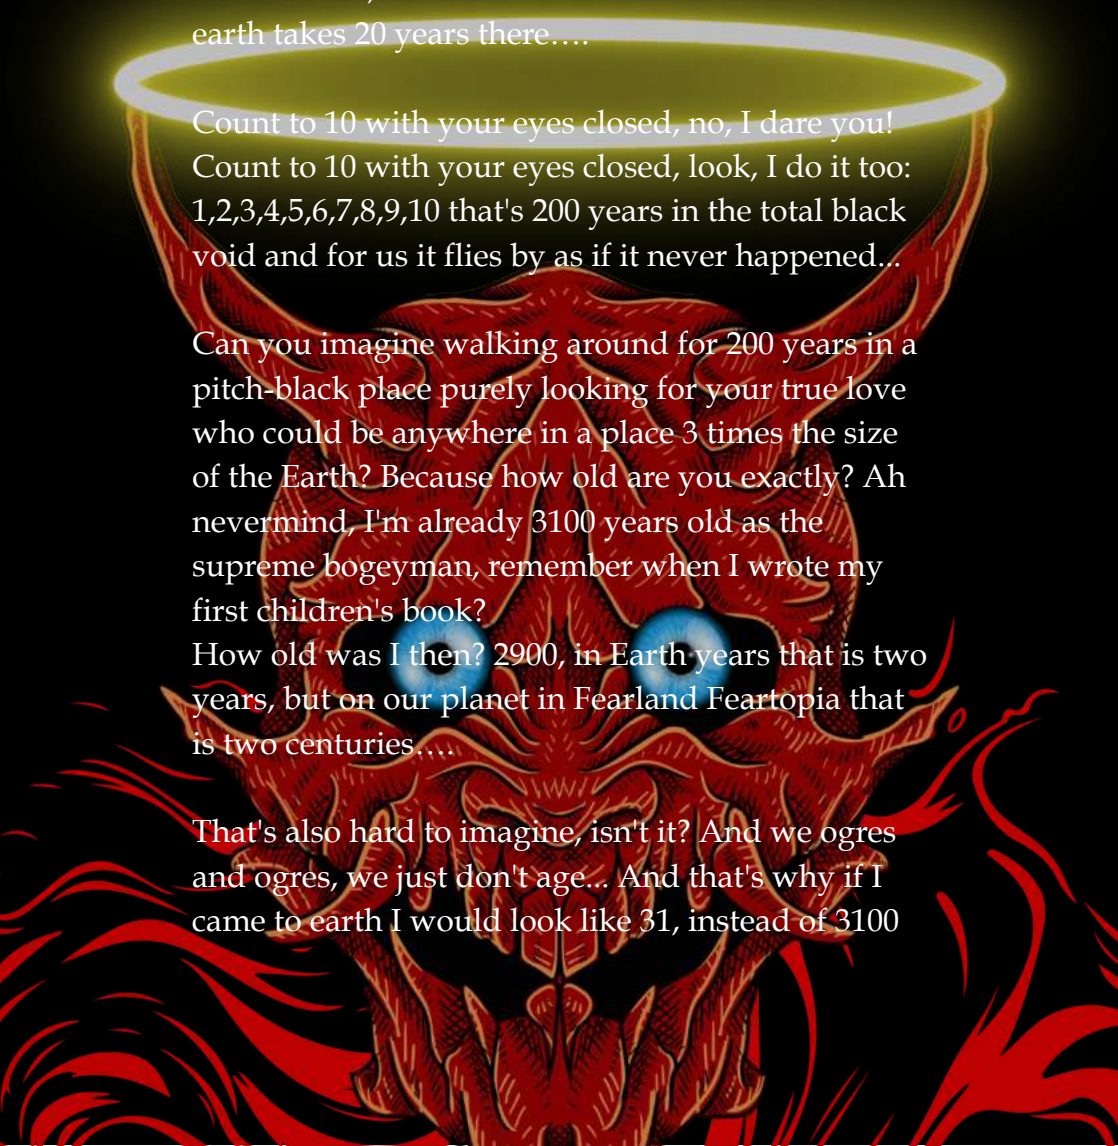

And when the love is strong enough, only then will you come back to earth... Sometimes you sit in the shadow world for hours and days and weeks and months and decades and centuries, while mom and dad don't even notice that you are gone... It goes so fast on earth, but in the shadow world 1 second on earth takes 20 years there....

Count to 10 with your eyes closed, no, I dare you!
Count to 10 with your eyes closed, look, I do it too:
1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10 that's 200 years in the total black void and for us it flies by as if it never happened...

Can you imagine walking around for 200 years in a pitch-black place purely looking for your true love who could be anywhere in a place 3 times the size of the Earth? Because how old are you exactly? Ah nevermind, I'm already 3100 years old as the supreme bogeyman, remember when I wrote my first children's book?

How old was I then? 2900, in Earth-years that is two years, but on our planet in Fearland Feartopia that is two centuries....

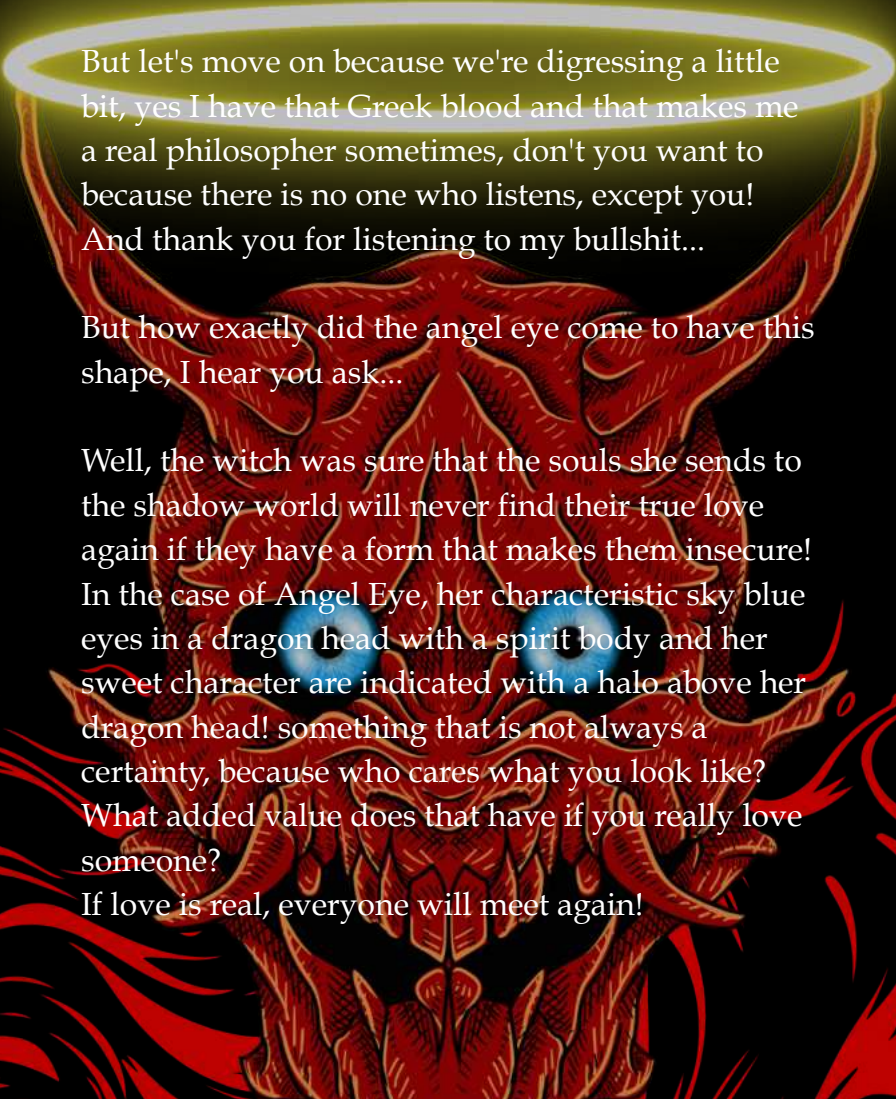

That's also hard to imagine, isn't it? And we ogres and ogres, we just don't age... And that's why if I came to earth I would look like 31, instead of 3100 here, which makes a difference of 2 zeros. If only we had it in the bank account or in the piggy bank, huh hahaha... And then you may think that 2 zeros is a lot, but 2 times 0 is still.....

#10

Correct!

But let's move on because we're digressing a little bit, yes I have that Greek blood and that makes me a real philosopher sometimes, don't you want to because there is no one who listens, except you! And thank you for listening to my bullshit...

But how exactly did the angel eye come to have this shape, I hear you ask...

Well, the witch was sure that the souls she sends to the shadow world will never find their true love again if they have a form that makes them insecure! In the case of Angel Eye, her characteristic sky blue eyes in a dragon head with a spirit body and her sweet character are indicated with a halo above her dragon head! something that is not always a certainty, because who cares what you look like? What added value does that have if you really love someone?

If love is real, everyone will meet again!

#11

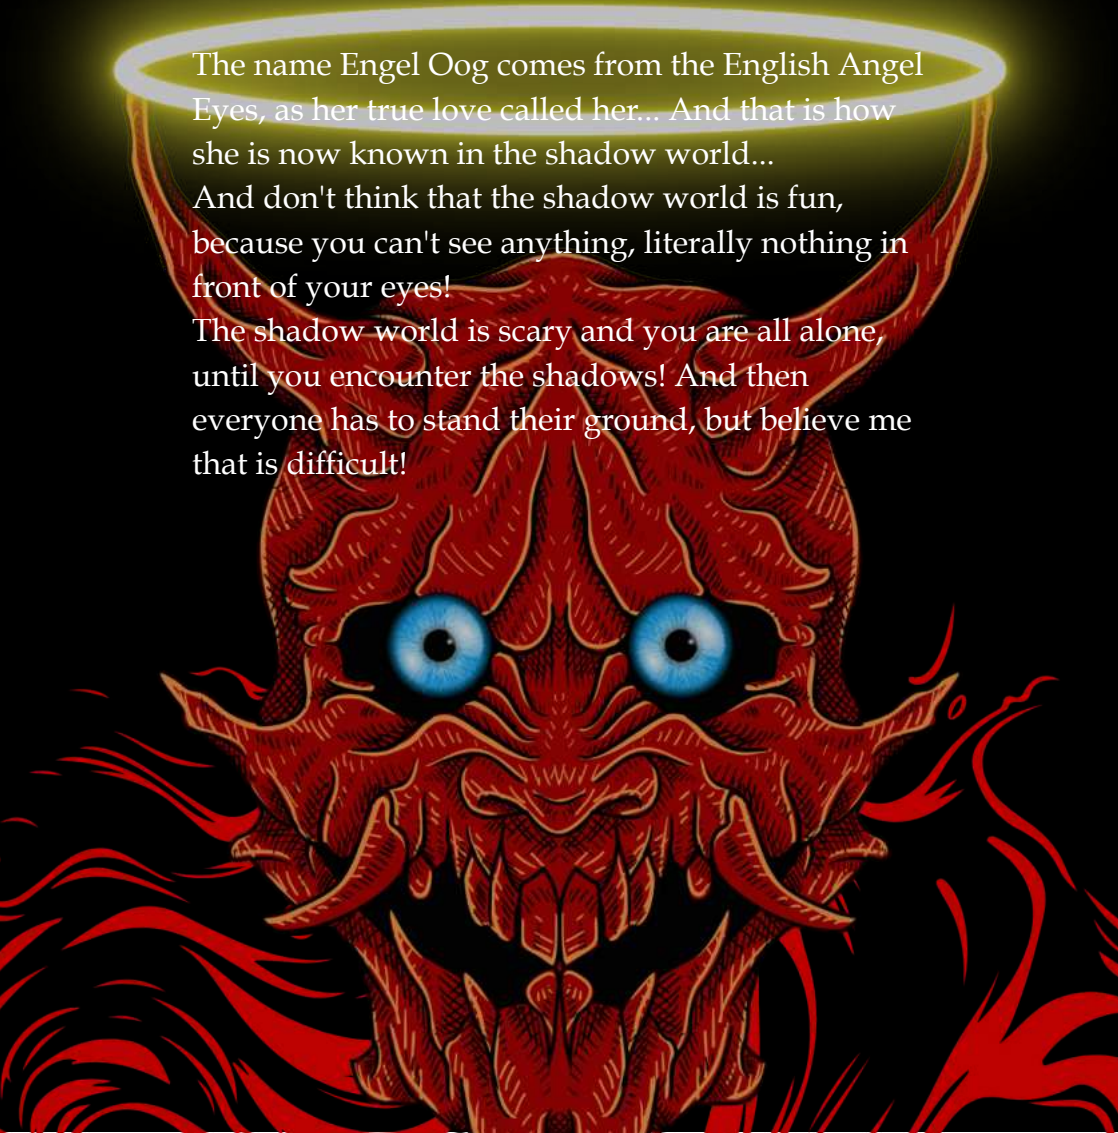

Sooner or later, not even the clock can turn back time, let alone a witch!

This is the story of Angel Eye and her journey through the shadow world to find her true love again, or wander forever!

The name Engel Oog comes from the English Angel Eyes, as her true love called her... And that is how she is now known in the shadow world...

And don't think that the shadow world is fun, because you can't see anything, literally nothing in front of your eyes!

The shadow world is scary and you are all alone, until you encounter the shadows! And then everyone has to stand their ground, but believe me that is difficult!

#12

A detailed illustration of a red, horned demon head. The head is rendered in a stylized, almost woodcut-like manner with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading. It has two large, curved horns that extend upwards and outwards. The eyes are a striking, glowing blue color. The mouth is open, showing a row of sharp, pointed teeth. The entire head is set against a black background, and a bright, glowing yellow ring or halo surrounds the top of the head. The bottom of the image features stylized, swirling red flames or smoke.

The second chapter!

Judging is not allowed!

#13

Because it started to get scary when she first changed, her normal human body turned into a spiritual and floating embodiment, you can't call it!

And her beautiful long hair seemed to burn as a dragon's head emerged in return! Everything about her slowly changed except her beautiful blue eyes!

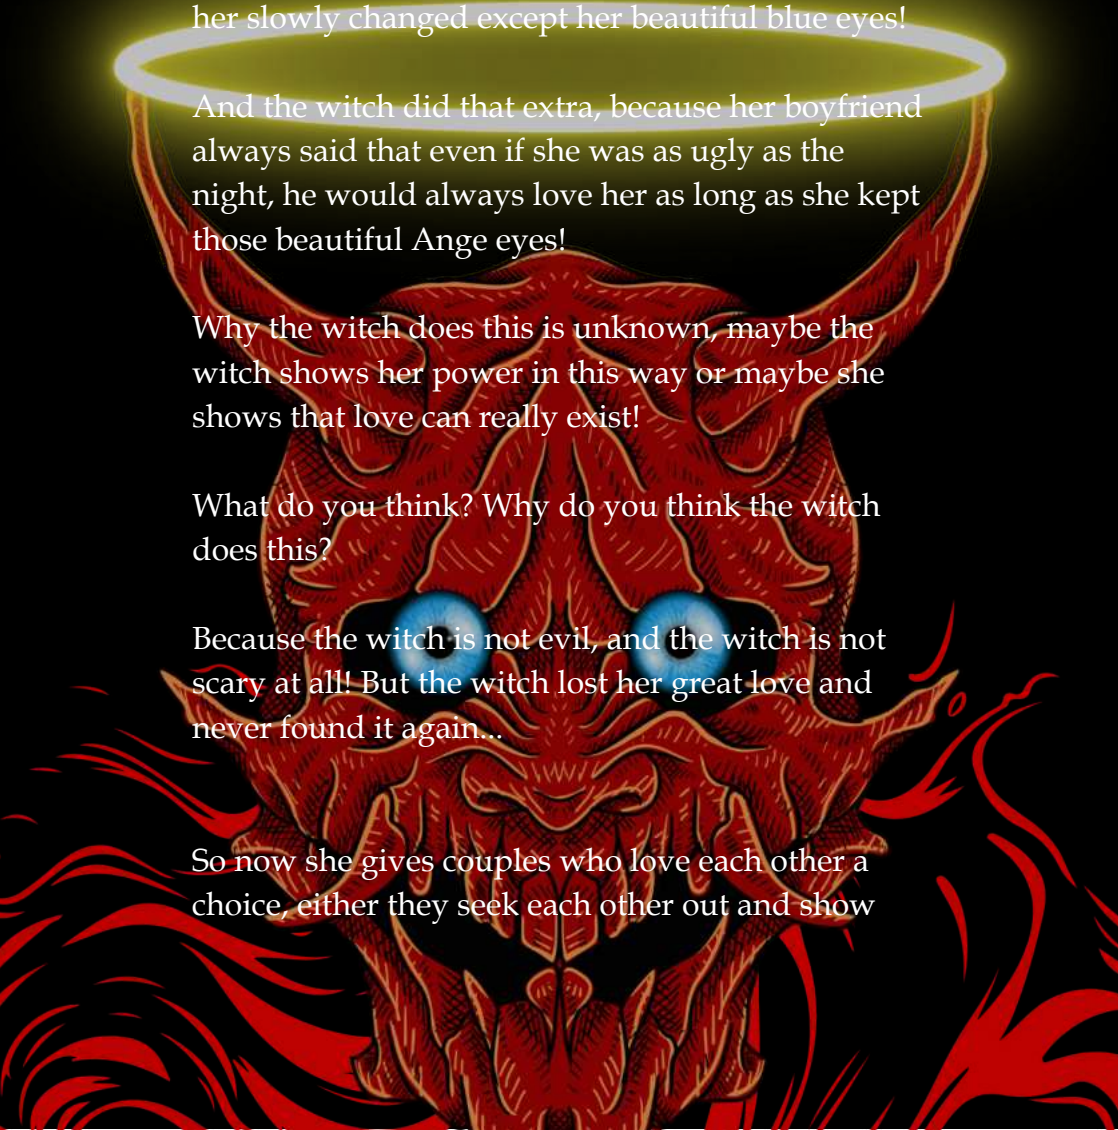

And the witch did that extra, because her boyfriend always said that even if she was as ugly as the night, he would always love her as long as she kept those beautiful Ange eyes!

Why the witch does this is unknown, maybe the witch shows her power in this way or maybe she shows that love can really exist!

What do you think? Why do you think the witch does this?

Because the witch is not evil, and the witch is not scary at all! But the witch lost her great love and never found it again...

So now she gives couples who love each other a choice, either they seek each other out and show that their love is stronger than them or they give up and stay in the shadow world forever...

And the witch gives everyone a chance to defeat her because everyone is given a superpower to survive between the shadows and that of our main character, the power with which she can see through everything and everyone in the dark is a kind of x-ray eyes, with which she can see into the darkest hole, and no wall or door whatever is made of is strong enough to leave her blind!

So the witch isn't that evil, is she? and not that scary, the witch is nothing more than a romantic who is actually just bored... Because she lost her great love long, long, long ago...

But we digress again, this story is about Angel Eye and we automatically come back to the witch and whether the witch is defeated or not...

What do you think the witch will be defeated? But why? Okay, it's not an everyday thing she does, but is what she does really so wrong?

And you know how long 20 years is on Earth! Is it so wrong what the witch does when she actually only wants to strengthen love?

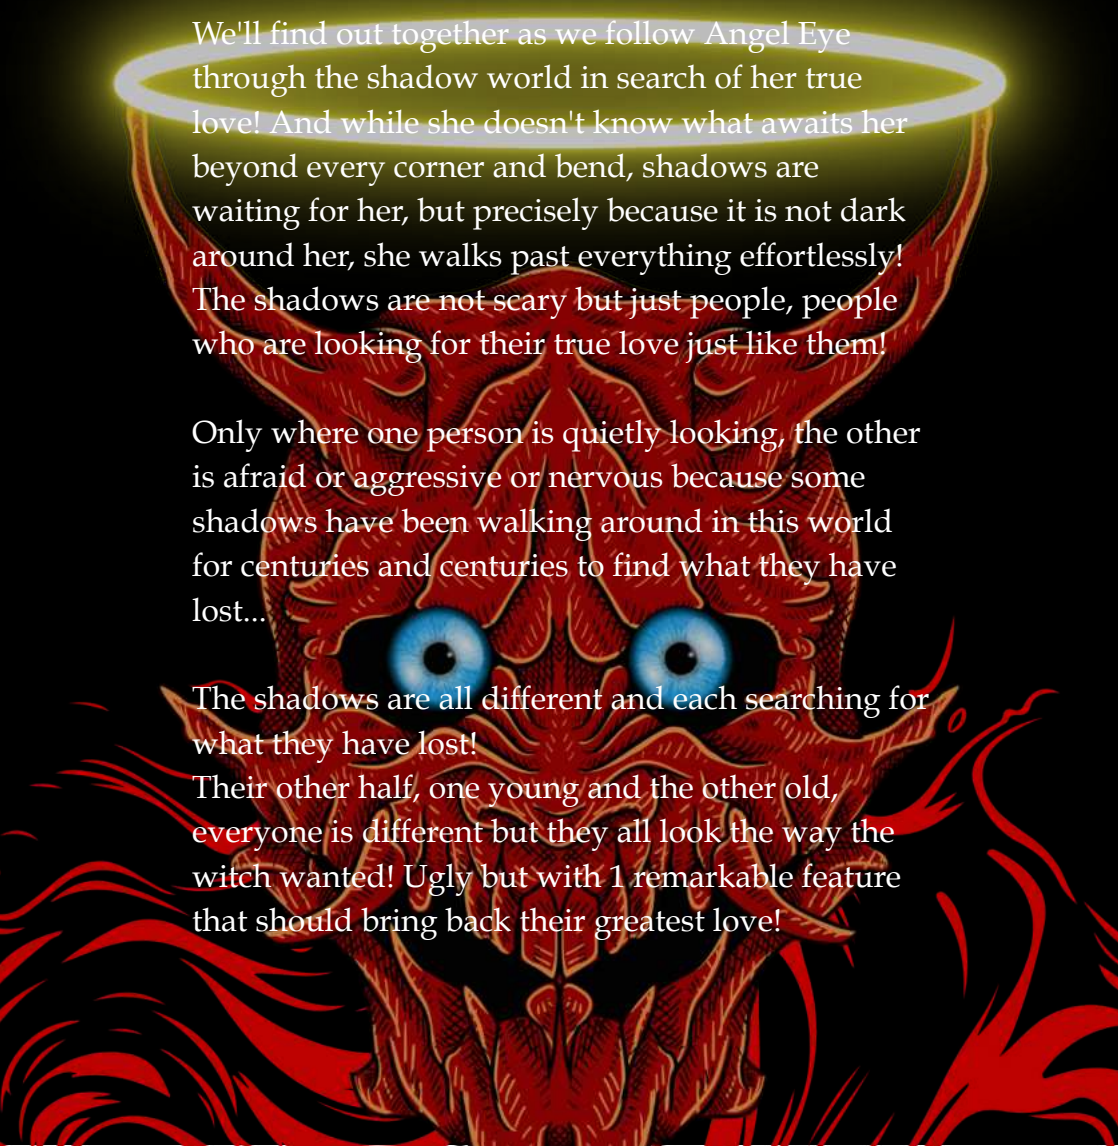

Should the witch actually be defeated?

We'll find out together as we follow Angel Eye through the shadow world in search of her true love! And while she doesn't know what awaits her beyond every corner and bend, shadows are waiting for her, but precisely because it is not dark around her, she walks past everything effortlessly! The shadows are not scary but just people, people who are looking for their true love just like them!

Only where one person is quietly looking, the other is afraid or aggressive or nervous because some shadows have been walking around in this world for centuries and centuries to find what they have lost...

The shadows are all different and each searching for what they have lost!

Their other half, one young and the other old, everyone is different but they all look the way the witch wanted! Ugly but with 1 remarkable feature that should bring back their greatest love!

One has beautiful long curly hair, the other has contours in her dog's head that her loved one should immediately recognize.

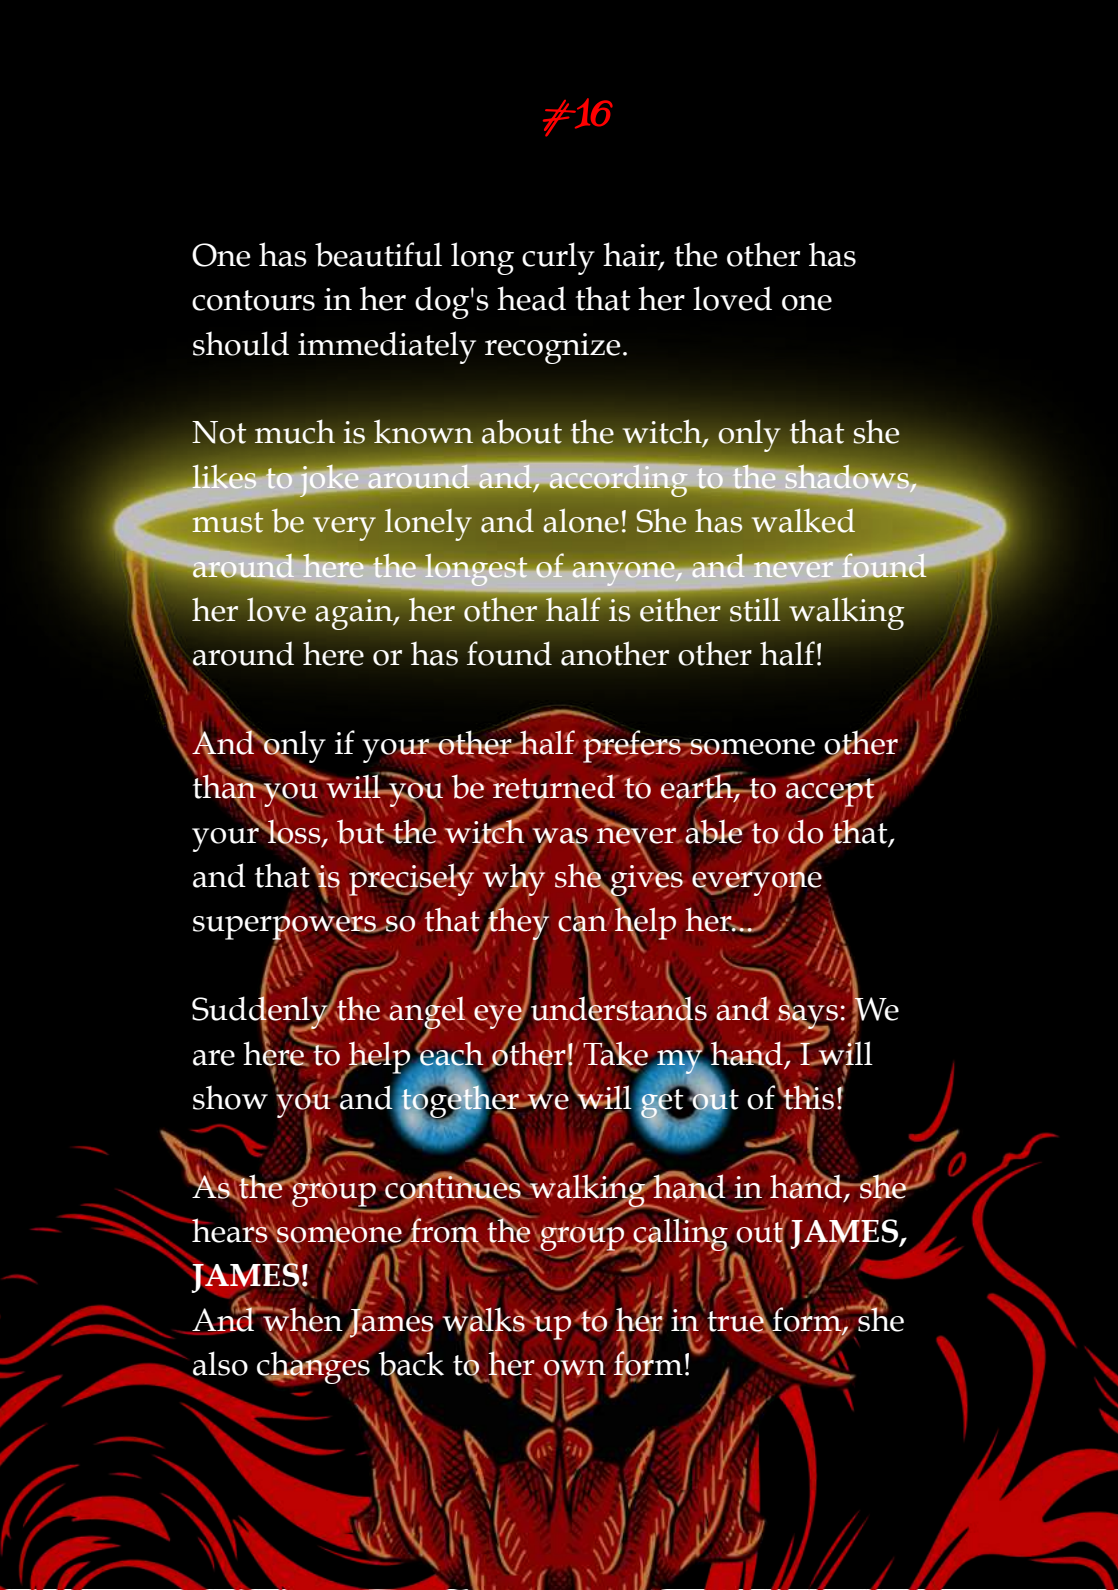

Not much is known about the witch, only that she likes to joke around and, according to the shadows, must be very lonely and alone! She has walked around here the longest of anyone, and never found her love again, her other half is either still walking around here or has found another other half!

And only if your other half prefers someone other than you will you be returned to earth, to accept your loss, but the witch was never able to do that, and that is precisely why she gives everyone superpowers so that they can help her...

Suddenly the angel eye understands and says: We are here to help each other! Take my hand, I will show you and together we will get out of this!

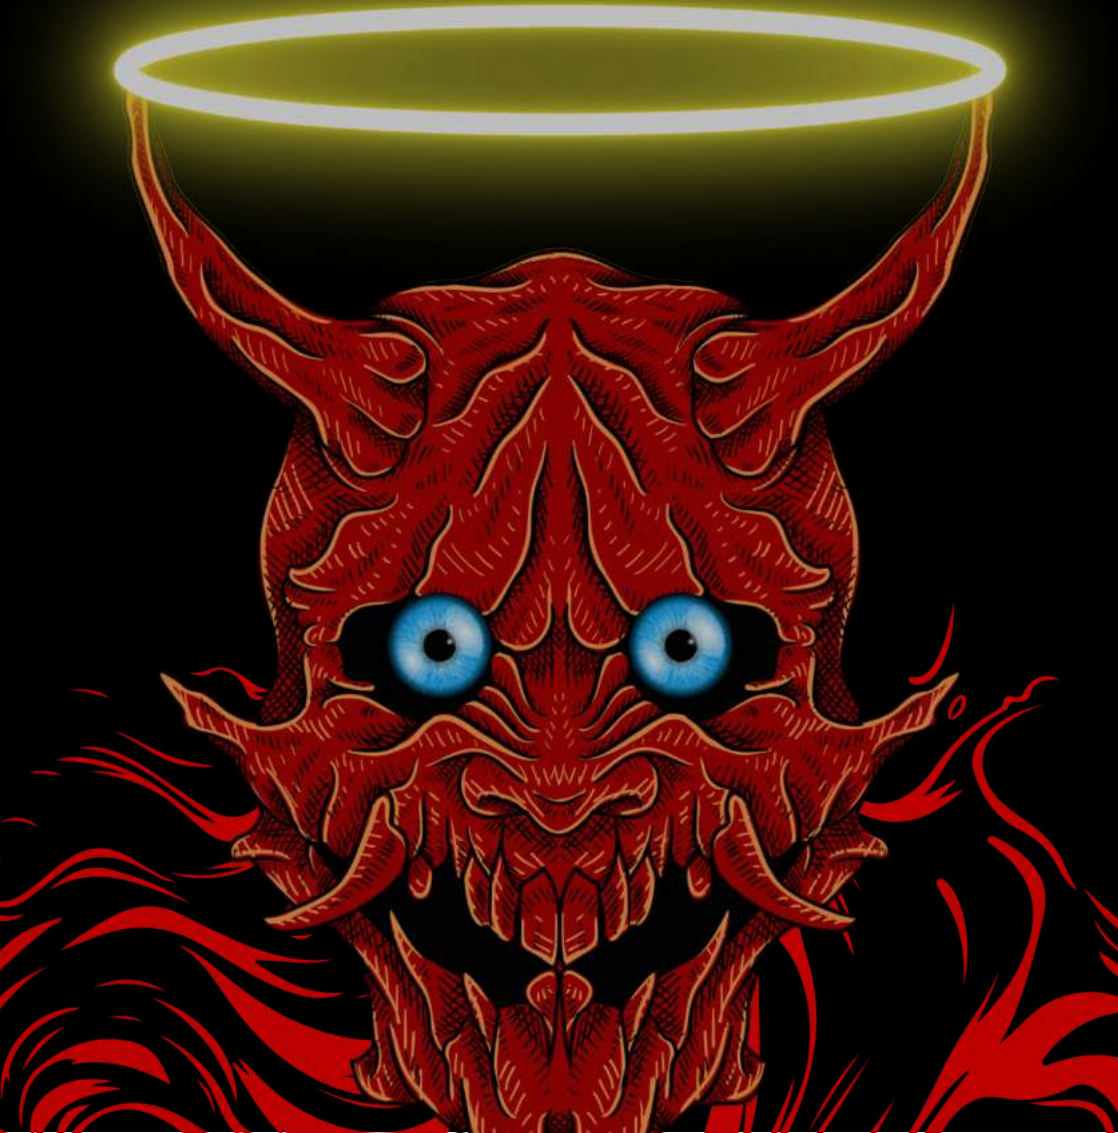

As the group continues walking hand in hand, she hears someone from the group calling out JAMES, JAMES!

And when James walks up to her in true form, she also changes back to her own form!

#17

The men remain themselves, only the women are changed by the witch... And when they hug each other, an opening appears in the air and ground through which they are sucked back to earth, the place where they were last...

#18

A detailed illustration of a red, horned demon head. The head is rendered in a stylized, almost woodcut-like manner with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading. It has two large, curved horns at the top. The eyes are a striking, glowing blue. Above the head is a bright, glowing yellow ring. The background is black, with red, flame-like patterns at the bottom.

The third chapter!
Do you understand yet!?

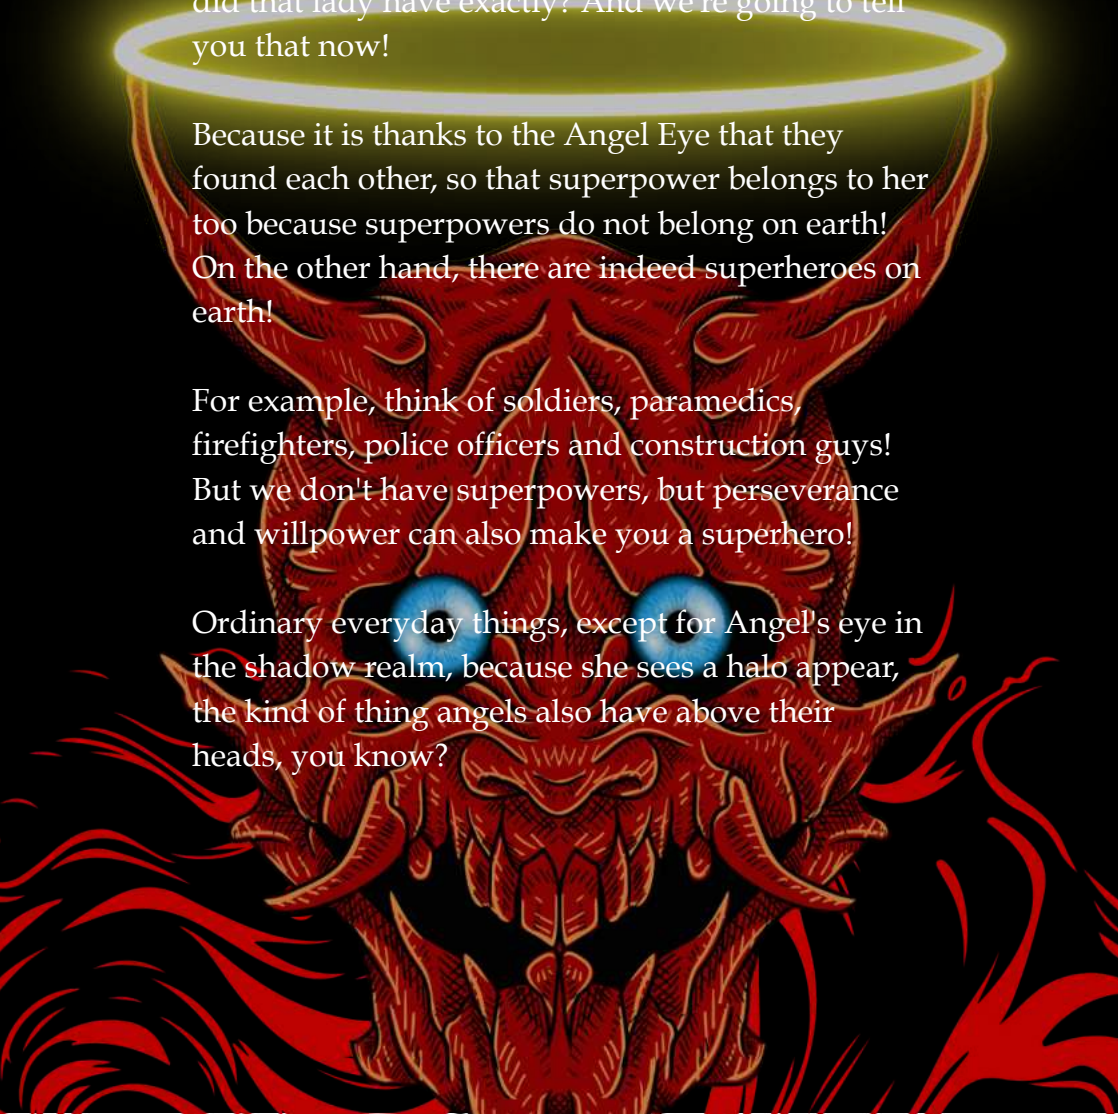

This is a difficult story to explain, but what matters is what has just been read to you or what you may have bravely read yourself, finding your other half...

And now I hear you thinking, but what superpower did that lady have exactly? And we're going to tell you that now!

Because it is thanks to the Angel Eye that they found each other, so that superpower belongs to her too because superpowers do not belong on earth! On the other hand, there are indeed superheroes on earth!

For example, think of soldiers, paramedics, firefighters, police officers and construction guys! But we don't have superpowers, but perseverance and willpower can also make you a superhero!

Ordinary everyday things, except for Angel's eye in the shadow realm, because she sees a halo appear, the kind of thing angels also have above their heads, you know?

And with that, the darkest place is illuminated for all shadow monsters as long as they stay close to Angel's eye.

They do not introduce each other and one is even more jealous than the other of the power that the Angel eye has just received...

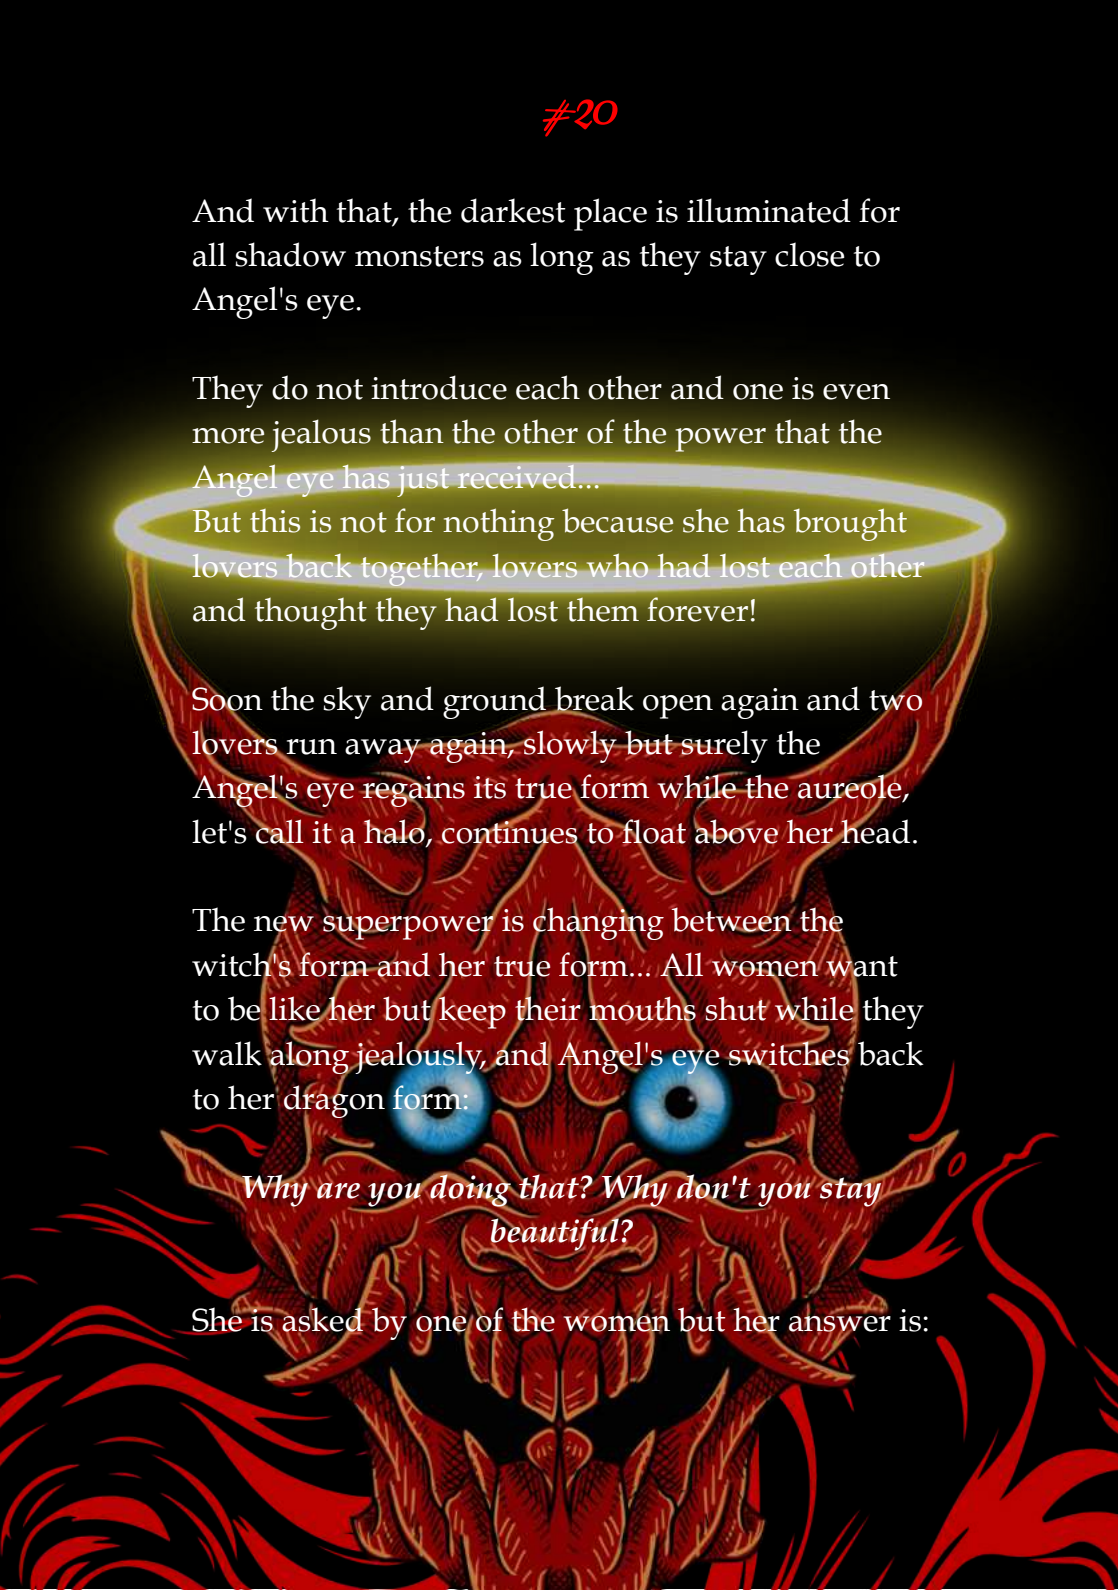

But this is not for nothing because she has brought lovers back together, lovers who had lost each other and thought they had lost them forever!

Soon the sky and ground break open again and two lovers run away again, slowly but surely the Angel's eye regains its true form while the aureole, let's call it a halo, continues to float above her head.

The new superpower is changing between the witch's form and her true form... All women want to be like her but keep their mouths shut while they walk along jealously, and Angel's eye switches back to her dragon form:

Why are you doing that? Why don't you stay beautiful?

She is asked by one of the women but her answer is:

#21

I don't have to be the only one beautiful, and I don't necessarily have to be the best! I want to be able to save you all and then we'll see if I can find mine again!

The woman puts a hand on her shoulder and says lead us on the enlightened path and with your love we will find ours again!

Then they hear a scream coming from above, a scream that goes through the flesh:

NO THIS WAS NOT INTENDED
THAT'S ALL! NO NO NO NO AND AGAIN NO!!

The shadow world is illuminated in one go and there are gfirst around above the women who are all laughing scary while with nacome downstairs and pick up the women one by one and drop them in a different place!

Angel's eye soon enters into battle with the spirits in her dragon form and her halo (sorry, we go again) blinds the spirits in the air, causing them to fall away one by one...

She hears a scream again:

DO YOU THINK YOU ARE TOO
SMART ME WITH YOUR BEAUTIFUL BESK?

JUST WAIT YOU'LL STAY HERE FOREVER AND FOREVER AND FOREVER UNTIL HE TRADES YOU IN, JUST LIKE HAPPENED TO ME!

Angel eye shrugs her shoulders and says: Bring it on!

When she thought things couldn't get any worse, the witch sends the universe's worst nightmare towards the boogie-boegedie monsters...

And our regular readers/listeners know how dangerous these monsters are because I have described these monsters several times as all-destroying and all-consuming!

Is the witch bad after all!? or is the witch simply dissatisfied because this is the greatest evil that can possibly exist, but as you also know, the Boegedie-Boegedie monsters only devour what is beautiful and sweet and in the shadow world there is nothing but black and emptiness....

#23

A detailed illustration of a red, horned demon head. The head is rendered in a stylized, almost woodcut-like manner with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading. It has large, curved horns and two glowing blue eyes. Above the head is a bright, glowing yellow ring. The background is black, with red, flame-like patterns at the bottom.

The fourth chapter!

And what next!?

There will be a staircase for the monsters that runs down to earth and the monsters walk up one by one. One has not yet reached the top and the other follows, and soon the entire earth has been infiltrated with an invasion of Boegedie-Boegedie monsters ..

The gigantic dinosaurs devour everything that is beautiful and sweet and colored on earth and before Angel's eye climbs the stairs she is told by the witch:

EITHER YOU TRY TO SAVE THE EARTH OR YOU WILL LOOK FOR TRUE LOVE! IF YOU CHOOSE THE WORLD YOUR TRUE LOVE WILL BELONG TO ME!

She doesn't think twice and flies up the stairs, to the earth that has already turned black! She won't be too late when the Boegedie-Boegedie monsters are already on their way to Fearland Feartopia and want to leave the earth behind...

all that sounds is a hellish witch's laugh across the entire earth...

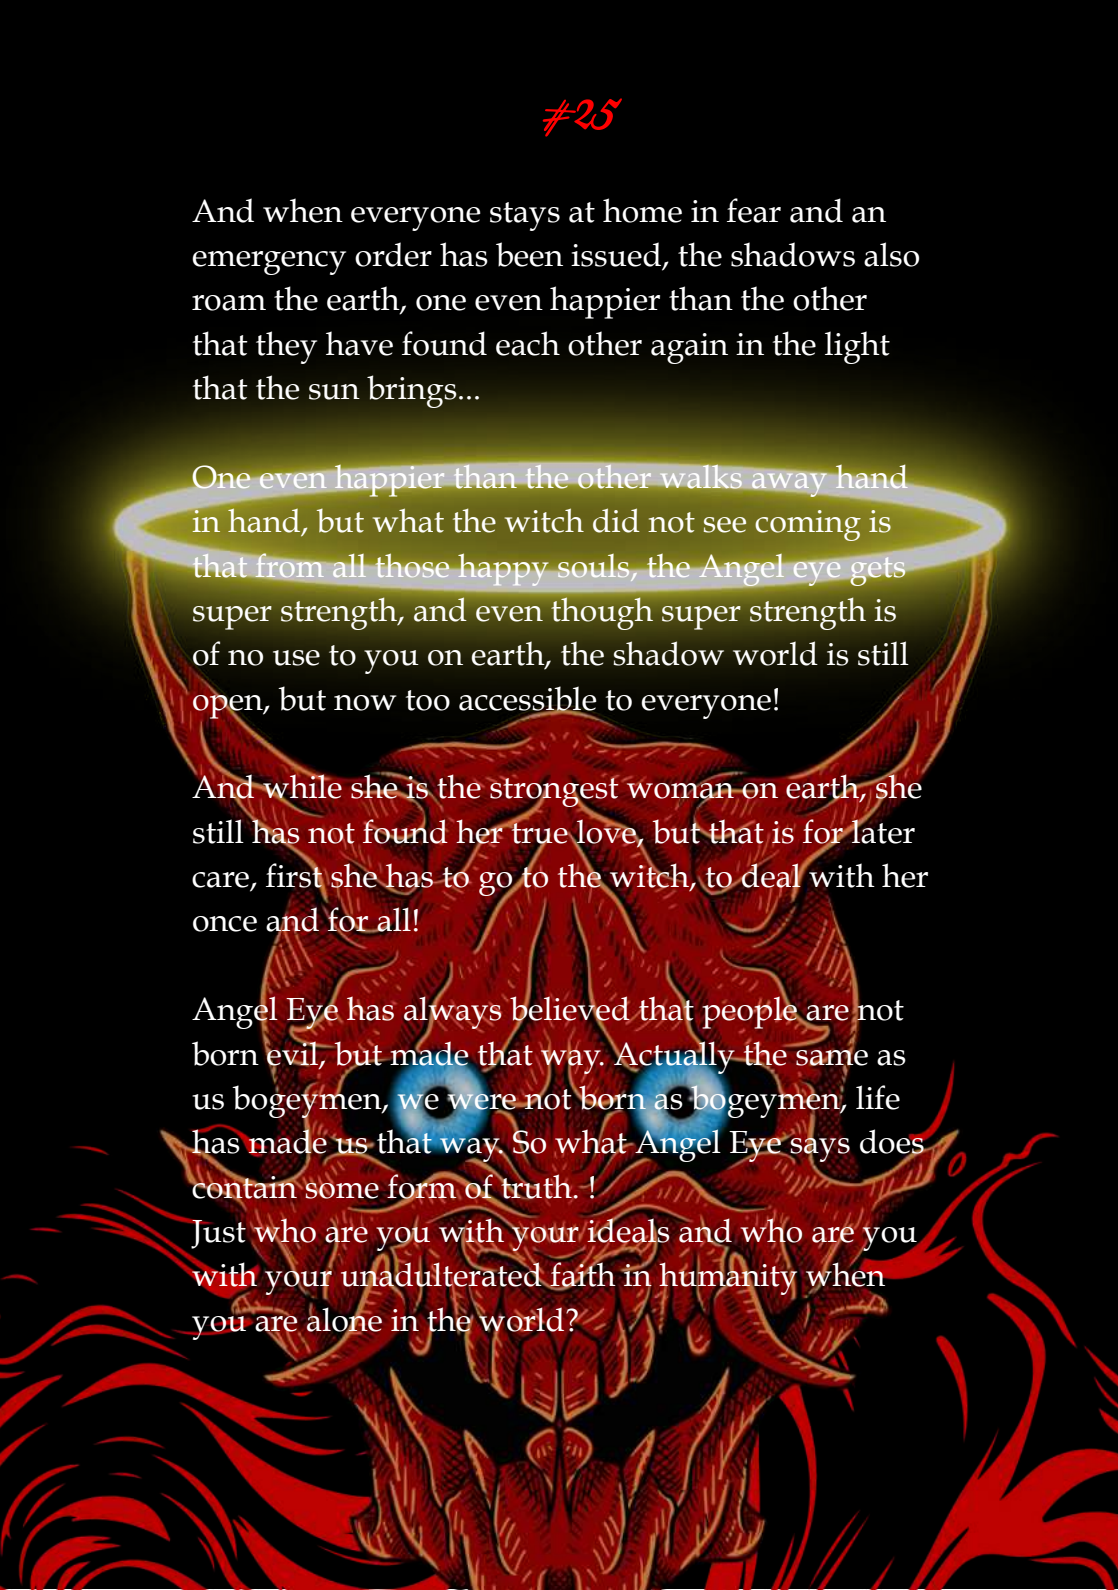

And when everyone stays at home in fear and an emergency order has been issued, the shadows also roam the earth, one even happier than the other that they have found each other again in the light that the sun brings...

One even happier than the other walks away hand in hand, but what the witch did not see coming is that from all those happy souls, the Angel eye gets super strength, and even though super strength is of no use to you on earth, the shadow world is still open, but now too accessible to everyone!

And while she is the strongest woman on earth, she still has not found her true love, but that is for later care, first she has to go to the witch, to deal with her once and for all!

Angel Eye has always believed that people are not born evil, but made that way. Actually the same as us bogeymen, we were not born as bogeymen, life has made us that way. So what Angel Eye says does contain some form of truth. !

Just who are you with your ideals and who are you with your unadulterated faith in humanity when you are alone in the world?

As the Angel eye is now, because no one dares to go outside anymore, the shadows have exposed themselves and the Boegedie-Boegedie monsters walked around freely, the nightmares flood the dreams...

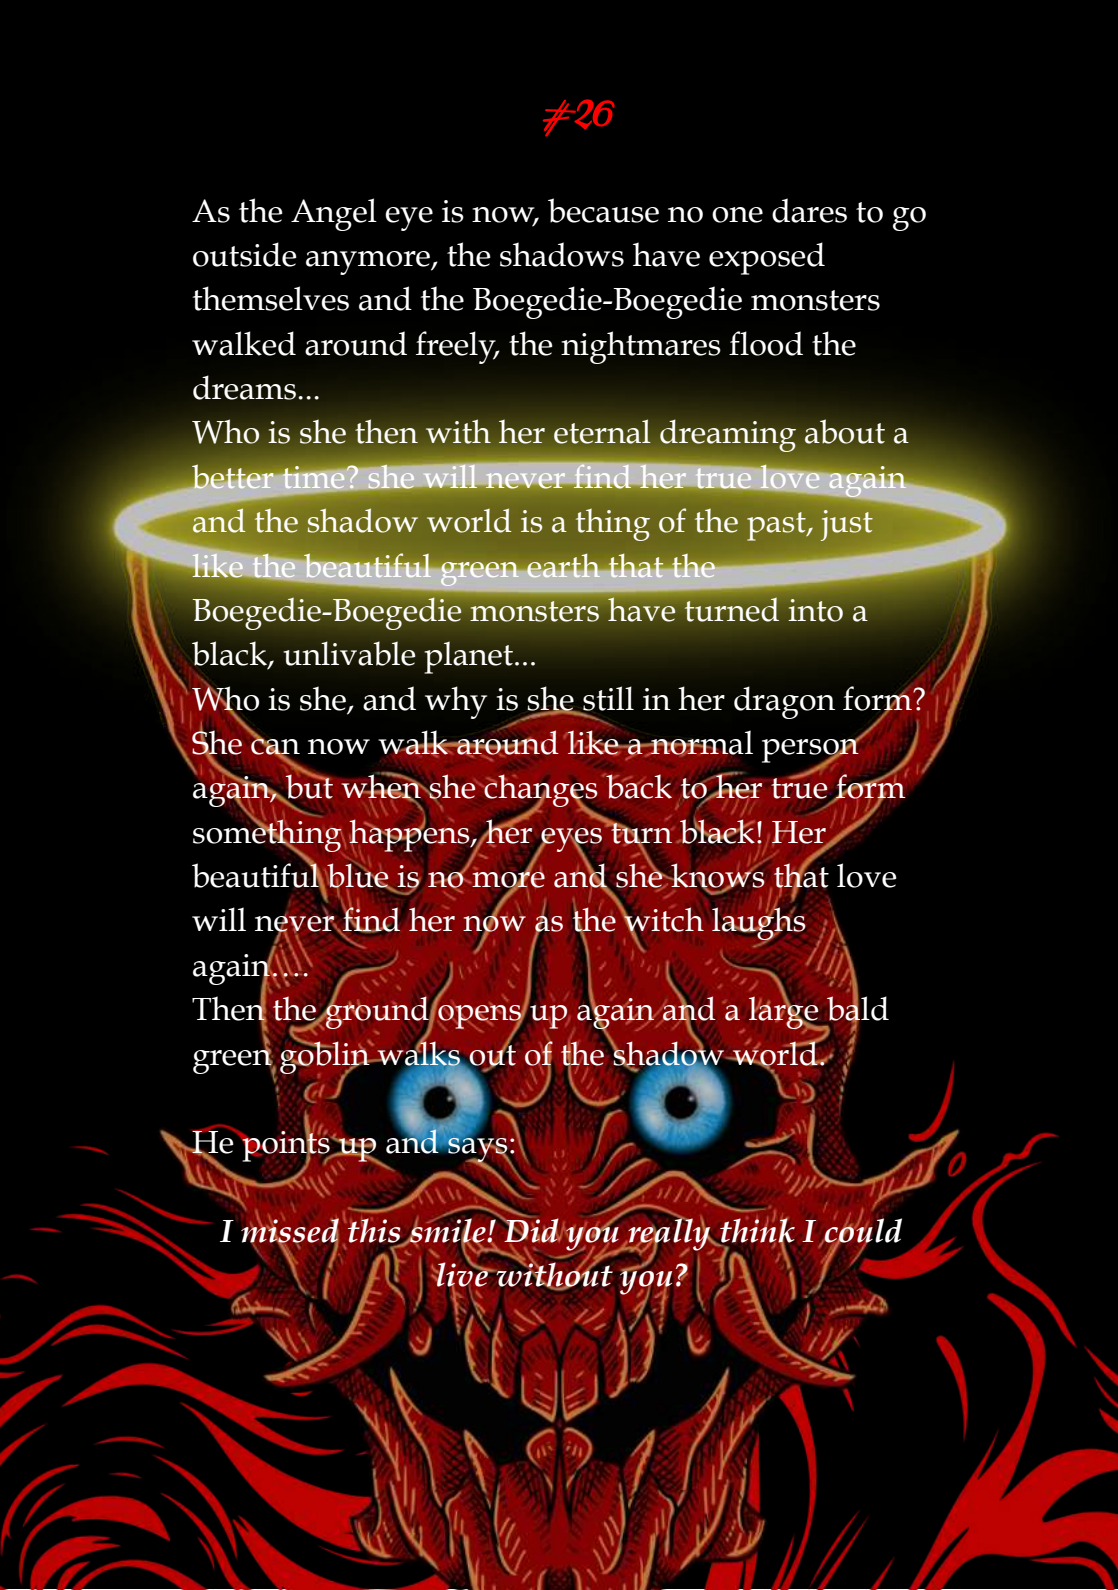

Who is she then with her eternal dreaming about a better time? she will never find her true love again and the shadow world is a thing of the past, just like the beautiful green earth that the Boegedie-Boegedie monsters have turned into a black, unlivable planet...

Who is she, and why is she still in her dragon form? She can now walk around like a normal person again, but when she changes back to her true form something happens, her eyes turn black! Her beautiful blue is no more and she knows that love will never find her now as the witch laughs again....

Then the ground opens up again and a large bald green goblin walks out of the shadow world.

He points up and says:

I missed this smile! Did you really think I could live without you?

#27

*I saw you cry every day and I saw you hurt people every day because of your sadness, but did you really think I could live without you?
I love you and I always have!*

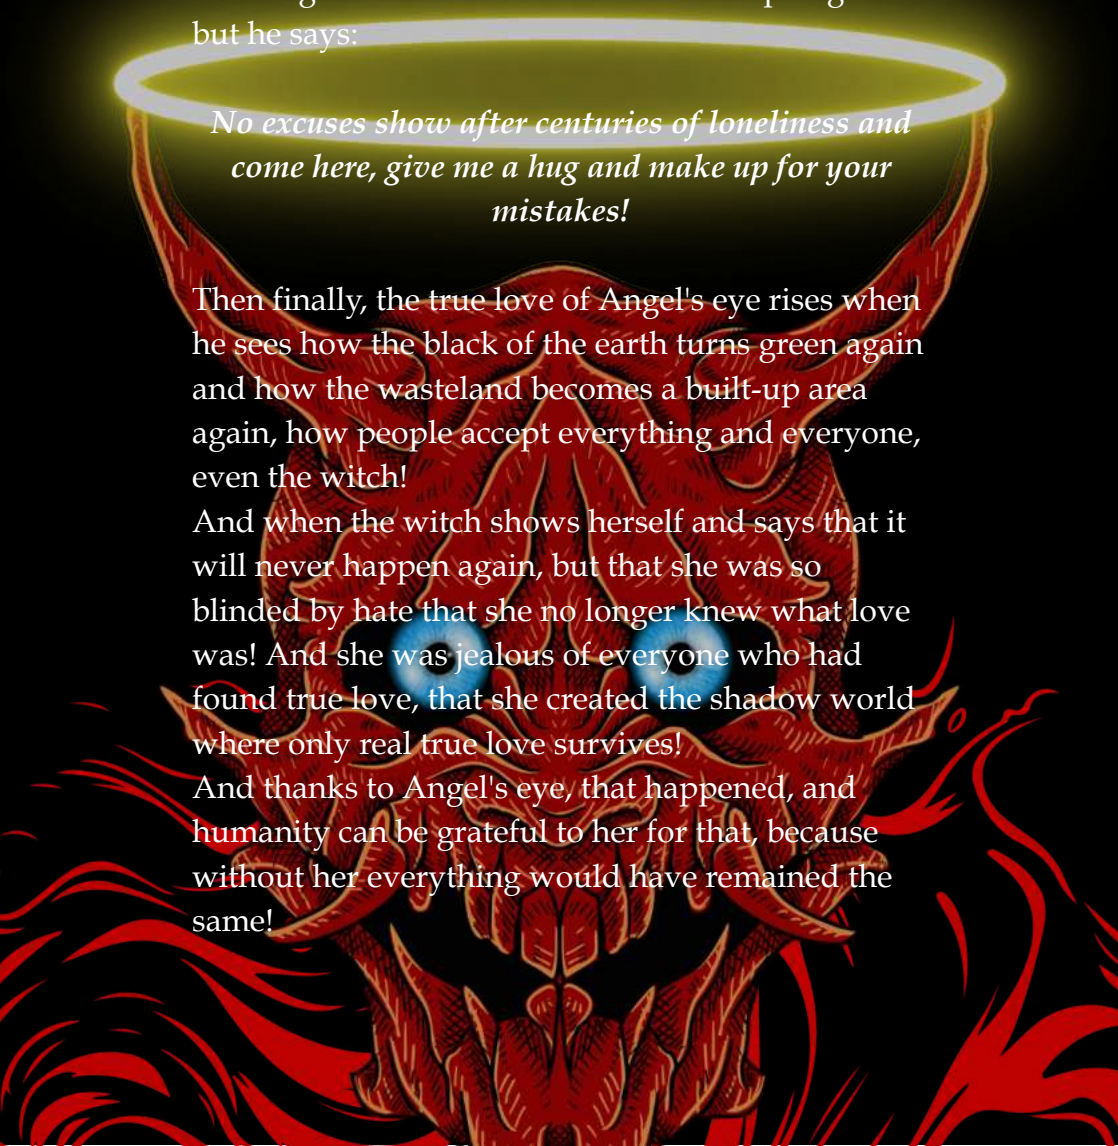

The laugh turns into a sob as the witch apologizes
but he says:

No excuses show after centuries of loneliness and come here, give me a hug and make up for your mistakes!

Then finally, the true love of Angel's eye rises when he sees how the black of the earth turns green again and how the wasteland becomes a built-up area again, how people accept everything and everyone, even the witch!

And when the witch shows herself and says that it will never happen again, but that she was so blinded by hate that she no longer knew what love was! And she was jealous of everyone who had found true love, that she created the shadow world where only real true love survives!

And thanks to Angel's eye, that happened, and humanity can be grateful to her for that, because without her everything would have remained the same!

Only the reaction of Angel Eye no one saw coming when she says:

Everyone needs this at some point, everyone needs it to find each other again, and okay you've gone too far, but there is a razor-thin line between hate and love and one cannot exist without the other!

You say you were blinded by hate but I see this as an opportunity to grow, so thank you! Only let this remain at 1 time!

But then the green man says:

Sorry lady, but I can't promise you that!

... The end ...

The Moral!

Do you know the moral of this story?

This one is simple at first, but have you thought about the idea behind it?

Because there is a thin line between love and hate and I don't have to tell you that, you have probably said to mom or dad: I hate you?

But you don't do that at all, even though you are sometimes angry and you no longer know what you are doing or saying...

And that is the moral, that is the idea behind it! Because as it says in big bold letters in chapter two:

Judging is not allowed!

Not even you! Although it is very simple to judge the witch, the witch was simply very sad and in sadness you make the wrong choices in life or make people's lives miserable!

I hope I have taught you something and until next time, sleep tight!
